BELLA COOLA RIVER SEVERS HAGENSBORG BY SUDDEN FLOODS

B.C. Settlement of 250 People Cut Off for Three Days by Inundation Which Carries Away Four Miles of Road and Several Trestles — Assistance Being Organized

SERIOUS floods in the Bella Coola River have isolated the town of Hagensborg since Tuesday last, and driven a number of families to higher ground for shelter, the Government was advised yesterday in police wireless messages relayed from Prince Rupert. A number of small trestle bridges are down on the main road from Bella Coola to Hagensborg, four miles of which has been flooded out with unofficial estimate of the damage placed at $50,000. At latest reports, yesterday, the river was receding. No persons had been injured, and none are in danger, it was said.

Floods in the Bella Coola River are frequent between October and December in each year. The last serious overflow was about November 20, 1932. In the present instance part of the overflow followed the highway, severing Hagensborg from communication without the outside, save by canoe. It was by this medium that Provincial Police officers made their way into the settlement, and assisted in the removal of families flooded out. Hagensborg has a population of some 250 people.

BRIDGES STAND

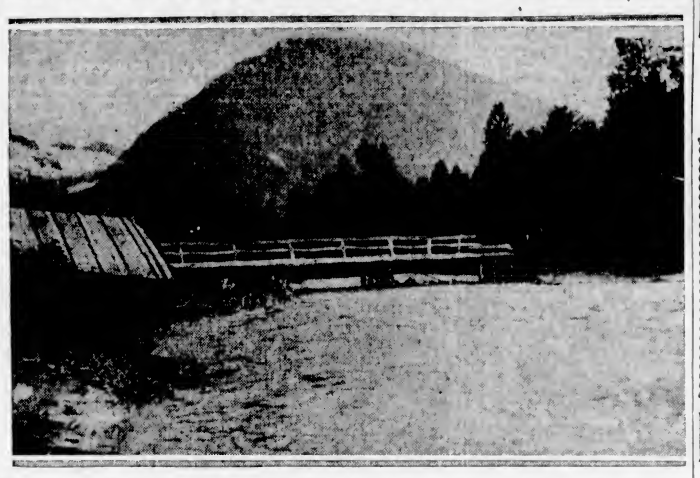

Three larger bridges crossing the main river are believed intact. Two are provincial structures, and one Federal. The Dominion built a 200-foot suspension bridge for pedestrians at Bella Coola. The Province erected two bridges, one at Canoe Crossing, twenty-five miles upstream from Bella Coola; and the other, the Saloompt Bridge, below Hagensborg.

Police messages told of fretting of the banks near the suspension bridge; but were concerned more with the isolation of Hagensborg through the carrying away of trestles on the road leading to that settlement.

MAY REQUIRE AID

The Government moved in two directions on receipt of the reports, which had been forwarded by Staff Sergeant McNeill, at Prince Rupert. The police launch P.M.L. 9 was dispatched from Ocean Falls to the scene, and officials of the Department of Works instructed to check up on the actual damage done. Meanwhile further advices were sought over the police wireless system, from Constables Condon and Smith at the scene. Some of the families moved from flooded homes at Hagensborg may require temporary assistance, it was believed.

Bella Coola River in Flood Once More

The broken bridge spanning the Bella Coola River, shown above, bears testimony to the destructive power of this stream, which is again on the rampage. According to the reports received by Provincial Police, the settlement of Hagensborg, five miles up the valley from Bella Coola town, is isolated. The view shown above, taken during a former flood, is midway between the settlements.

SHOW SCORN FOR HITLER

Dissenting Bishops Removal Launches Anti-Nazi Demonstration

(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press)

MUNICH, Germany, Oct. 12 (AP).—Discord in the Evangelical Church reached a sensational point tonight when Hitlerism was openly derided and scorned by demonstrators protesting the arbitrary removal of two dissenting bishops.

From a gathering before the Episcopal Palace, where Hans Meiser, deposed today as Bishop of Bavaria, on charges of opposition to the State, was being held prisoner, the throng hurried to the Brown House — Nazi headquarters in the city.

HITLER DERIDED

There they spat on the ground and shouted derisively at the Nazi church administration, the Government and at Chancellor Hitler, who is now, himself, in Munich.

The outbreak, most pronounced since Hitler came to power, was induced by arrest of eight churchmen, and removal of Bishop Meiser and Bishop Theofil Wurm of Wurttemberg.

These measures, it was predicted in one responsible quarter, would result in weakening of Nazidom, "either through its high-handed

FREIGHTER HAS HEAVY PASSAGE

Limps Into Port After Terrific Pounding With One Man Lost

MONTREAL, Oct. 12 (CP).—Carpenters worked over the freighter King's County, today, as Captain Orvig related how one man was washed overboard, the ship's carpenter broke two bones in his foot, two sailors were injured, parts of the bridge lost and hundreds of dollars worth of damage caused in a terrific storm in the Atlantic last week.

The King's County crawled into port, yesterday, with numerous parts of her superstructure smashed to pieces by the tremendous force of the waves that beat against her for several days.

Captain Orvig declared he had to steer in the wrong direction for twelve hours to escape the full fury of the waves.

He did not leave the bridge for fifty-six hours. His wife had wrung out and dried his soaked clothes.

The seaman, Hans Felsche, was swept overboard by a huge wave.

IS CHARGED WITH "FAKING" HOLDUP

Vancouver Man Arrested After Claiming to Have Been Robbed of Money

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12 (CP). — Gordon W. Harper, who reported to police that he was held up on Burrard Bridge on October 9 and robbed of money and jewelry, is under arrest and charged with "faking" the holdup.

He was charged at police headquarters following statements made by him while being questioned by Chief Constable John Cameron. He is charged with "giving false information tending to cause public mischief," resulting in inconvenience to police officers.

Chief Cameron and City Prosecutor Orr stated they intend to put a stop to such practices and they intend to press for penalties if convictions are obtained.

To Regulate Exportation Of Shingles

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12 (CP).—Officials of the British Columbia Red Shingles Export Association stated today the association would meet in a few days to prepare plans for regulating exports to the United States under authority of the Natural Products Marketing Act.

Shingle manufacturers said an order-in-council announced from Ottawa apparently granted all the powers of control they had asked. They refused to make further comment, however, pending the return of T. H. Wilkinson, secretary-treasurer of the British Columbia Lumber Manufacturers' Association, from Ottawa, where he has been seeking such authority.

Eight Years of Effort to Aid World Disarmament Bring Goal Little Nearer

Chancellor of Exchequer Declares Government's Whole Efforts Directed Towards Removing Causes of War—Will Continue Efforts While Strengthening Defences to Insure Safety

EDGBASTON, England, Oct. 12 (CP Cable).—The whole interest of the British Government and the British people lies in the prevention of war, declared Right Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in a speech tonight to the local Conservative Party.

Referring to the uneasy state of affairs on the Continent following the assassinations of Marseille, Mr. Chamberlain declared:

"No one in the world believes either this Government or this country is willing to do anything which will lead to war—even a war in which we are not engaged ourselves.

FRUITLESS EFFORTS

"Our whole interest lies the other way. Our whole efforts as a Government have been directed towards removing the causes of war. But after eight years' efforts we do not seem to be any nearer disarmament in Europe than in the beginning.

"We have come to the conclusion that in a world where none is disarmed, but others are continually increasing their armaments, we must embark on a programme which will mean a very considerable increase in British air squadrons and involve making good some deficiencies in our other forces.

"I hope the new expenditures will not be so great in any one year as to cripple our resources. We shall not relax efforts to prevent a general building up of the level of armaments in our country as well as in any other country."

Build Floating Brewery for Dry Sourdoughs

SEATTLE, Oct. 12 (AP).—A floating brewery is being built here today to carry schooners of suds to the sourdoughs of Alaska. Beer will be bottled and barrelled aboard the old schooner Alumnus as she sails along the southern coast of Alaska, from the Yukon to the Aleutian Islands. Alaska has been lacking supplies of beer ever since repeal of United States prohibition.

IRREGULAR BUT NOT CRIMINAL

Judge Dismisses Charge of Fraud Brought Against Little Brothers

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 12 (CP).—Senator E. S. Little and his two brothers, Arthur, of London, and Walter, of Winnipeg, were freed today of a charge of having conspired to defraud shareholders of the Robinson Little Company of $350,000.

The charge against the three brothers, first in a series of seven, was dismissed by Mr. Justice J. C. Makins on conclusion of the Crown's evidence, which, he held, did not substantiate the contention that their actions were criminal. Whether the other charges would be pressed depended on the attitude of the Ontario Attorney-General's Department, Crown Attorney Norman F. Newton said.

In his address dismissing the charge, Mr. Justice Makins drew attention to the fact that the Littles, former directors of the Robinson Little Company, had used the firm as a private bank and had borrowed large sums of money from it. He termed their action "rather irregular, but not criminal."

France May Pay in Gold Coin Again

PARIS, Oct. 12 (AP).—Premier Gaston Doumergue, tonight, was reported considering paying interest on France's outstanding bonds in gold coins, minting of which was authorized at the time of stabilization of the franc.

With the Premier confident that France will be able to stay on the gold standard, despite internal pressure for devaluation, success of the recent treasury loan led to the decision to mint coin, the first time that has been done since the franc's value was fixed.

WAIT DELIVERY AFTER PAYMENT

Berry Stoll Makes Wild Ride Before Issuing Kidnapping Communique

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12 (AP).—"Requirements" for her ransom met, Alice Speed Stoll's fate hung on a kidnapper's word tonight, a few hours after her husband made a wild ride over cleared roads in Central Kentucky.

Presumably Berry V. Stoll, vice-president of the Stoll Oil Refining Company, made his dash to meet the man who has held his twenty-six-year-old wife, since Wednesday, for a $50,000 ransom, or someone agreed upon by the man. A few hours afterward he issued this statement.

FOLLOWED INSTRUCTIONS

"We have carefully followed instructions, met all ransom requirements, and are awaiting fulfillment of promises.

"The parties may act freely without fear of hindrance.

"BERRY V. STOLL."

There was no intimation in the short announcement as to whether the ransom had been handed over to the actual kidnapper or to persons agreed upon by him. If it meant the money had been paid to those having Mrs. Stoll in their power, it was clear that others beside the man who snatched her from her home were involved in the case.

HAS FAITH IN MARKETING ACT

Minister Says Some Form of Compulsion Essential for Orderly Selling

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12 (CP). — Faith in the Natural Resources Marketing Acts, passed concurrently by the Dominion and Provincial Parliaments, was expressed by Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, in an address today to the foreign trade bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade.

"There is something in me that rebels against compulsion," he said, "but notwithstanding that this legislation runs against all that I have believed and preached for a lifetime, some measure of control is necessary to give us bargaining power."

RUINED FROM SIDE LINES

Dr. MacDonald described the efforts that had been made in the fruit industry to obtain co-operation and said that always some "selfish" interest stood out on the side lines and ruined the effort, resulting in "red ink" for everybody.

"If it is sound logic that producers should co-operate voluntarily, then it would seem to be sound logic for them to co-operate under this act, which enables them to do all the things they should do and gives them the added advantage of 100 per cent participation," he said.

It was a complex and difficult act to administer, and success would depend upon intelligent and capable administration, he said.

Codes for Business May Be Discussed At Ottawa Meeting

Group of Experts Studying Evidence Presented Before Stevens Committee — May Report to Conference of Premiers

OTTAWA, Oct. 12 (CP).—In the course of discussions slated for the Dominion-Provincial Conference on Amendments to the Constitution, to be held probably next month, it is anticipated that codes for business and industry will take a prominent place.

No official announcement to this effect has been made, but it is known that a group of experts has been engaged for some months in study of the evidence presented before the Stevens committee on price spreads at the last Parliamentary session, and formulation of a set of fair trade and industrial codes is believed to be their objective.

AMENDMENTS NECESSARY

Assumption that this subject will come up before the conference is based on the fact that practically any efforts to remedy evils disclosed before the committee, and which may be aired at its further sittings as a Royal Commission, would depend upon amendments to the British North America Act.

It would be only by the laborious method of securing unanimous approval of the provinces that the

MILL EMPLOYEES RESOLVE TO PROTECT INCOMING WORKERS

Will Meet Trains and Stages at Port Alberni to Prevent Intimidation by Striking Loggers—Labor Department Refuses to Interfere in Dispute Beyond Affording Protection

Mill Captains Appointed To Act in Case of Trouble

PORT ALBERNI, Oct. 12.—Employees of the Alberni Pacific Lumber Company's Mill, here, thrown out of work to the number of 350, through a strike at Camp Five, cutting short the supply of logs to the mill, held a meeting, today, at which it was resolved that the mill employees would take into their own hands the protection of men arriving to take the place of the striking loggers.

It was decided that all trains and stages arriving with men desiring to work will be met by a number of the mill workers, in order to see that they are not intimidated by the strikers. Elmer Glaspie, superintendent of the mill, stated that men are now being brought in by plane, but that others will be arriving overland. Strikers met the stages and train today, but no loggers arrived.

The strike committee has issued a printed statement that it intends to keep Camp Five closed.

CANNOT INTERFERE

A telegram was dispatched to the Minister of Labor at Victoria, yesterday, stating that five hundred men had been thrown out of work by the action of the strike organizers, and demanding that the Government take immediate action. A telegram in reply was read to the meeting, stating that the Department of Labor could not interfere, as no labor laws had been broken, but that every protection would be given to any men returning to work.

It was stated at the meeting today, that none of the strikers would be taken back to work. At the end of the strike last May, the company took back all their employees without any discrimination, and some of these men are the ones who are now agitating this strike, according to the company.

Men are being appointed by the mill employees as "captains," in various parts of the mill, who will be able to get in touch with the employees should any trouble arise with the strikers.

Royal Navy Will Pay Formal Honor To Murdered King

ROUNDING UP TERRORISTS

Two Suspects Are Held as Plotters Against Crowned Heads of Europe

(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press)

PARIS, Oct. 12 (AP).—A beautiful young woman, who police described as the "gun girl" for the assassin of King Alexander of Jugoslavia, was sought near Aix-en-Provence tonight, as police in France and over Europe trailed an international terror ring.

Believing the gang, with headquarters in Hungary, seeks the death of all Europe's rulers, the French police formally charged Vonemer Pospechil, Jugoslav expatriate and fugitive from justice, with complicity in the Marseille murders.

Advices from Geneva said Jugoslav delegates to the League of Nations had reports from persons present at Annemasse today, when Pospechil and Ivan Rajtich, his fellow suspect, were grilled, that the latter confessed he went to Paris to await orders for Alexander's slaying.

SUSPECT IS RELEASED

A fourth suspect, one Quiqueran Delauzen, of Austria, who was taken today, near Chambery, as he attempted to cross the border into Italy afoot through an Alpine pass, was released tonight, after he convinced police that his presence at Aix-en-Provence was innocent.

The hunt for the "gun girl"—the young woman police brought the pistols to Petrus Kalemen, the assassin, who also stayed at Aix—was being pushed vigorously tonight.

Police said she reached Aix, Sunday night, with four valises, one of which, police believed, contained the death-dealing guns Kalemen used. Three persons were known to have visited her, and the description of

Archbishop Of Latvia Is Killed

RIGA, Latvia, Oct. 12 (AP). — Archbishop Johann Pommer was brutally slain today a few hours before he was to have testified as chief witness in a case involving embezzlement of church funds.

The police were unable to trace the assassins but said they were convinced his murder and the court case were connected.

As the Primate of the Greek Orthodox Church at Latvia, Archbishop Pommer was the spiritual mentor of about 10 per cent of the populace.

Heat Takes Large Toll At Service

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 12 (AP).—Under a broiling Argentine Springtime sun, 500,000 of the Roman Catholic Church faithful assembled, today, to partake in the solemnity of the Pontifical High Mass.

So terrific was the heat in the open air cathedral that 400 women and girls collapsed, and laymen and priests alike were permitted to cover their heads against the sun.

Palermo Park, the huge tract on the Rio de la Plata, was crowded far beyond the 250,000 seats erected for thirty-second International Eucharistic Congress, the congregation converging at the 105-foot cross in the centre of Avnida Aivear.

GOLD FIND IS BELIEVED RICH

Immense Vein Discovered Near Nelson—Strike Exceeds Expectations

NELSON, Oct. 12 (CP). — The Rover Creek gold strike, uncovered by Dr. Flood and associates, is even greater than first expected, according to word reaching Nelson tonight from the workings.

A shot placed this afternoon exposed eleven feet of gold-bearing ore, five feet more than was expected, and there is every possibility, it is said, of even greater width, as the walls of the vein are yet to be determined.

If outcroppings up the hill of the same formation prove to be on the same lead, the vein has been traced well over 6,000 feet. Lamprophyre dykes, through which the vein passes, can be traced to Copper Mountain, seven and one-half miles distant.

With Dr. Flood are interested W. J. Sturgeon, court registrar of Nelson, and Stephen McDonald, also of Nelson. In all they have twenty-one claims staked.

Rever Creek is eight miles west of Nelson, directly above the Nelson city power plant at Bonnington Falls.

DETROIT, Oct. 13 (AP). — The proposed flight into the stratosphere of Professor Jean Piccard and his wife, Jeanette Piccard, was abandoned early today after weather advisers reported that the velocity of the wind showed no sign of lessening.

TERRIFIC BLAST ROCKS CHICAGO

Two Killed and Score Injured When Two Large Tanks Explode

CHICAGO, Oct. 12 (AP).—A terrific blast through a fourteen-story building of the near North Side, today, catapulted huge segments of debris through the street outside, killed two men and injured twenty-one others.

Skyscrapers were jarred, windows were shattered in structures five blocks away and three-quarters of a block of sidewalk abutting the Central Cold Storage Company plant at Dearborn and Kinsie Streets were torn up by the explosion.

$300,000 DAMAGE

L. M. Johnson, superintendent of the concern, estimated the damage at approximately $300,000.

The detonation occurred in the basement. A flywheel on a refrigerating machine tore loose and crashed against a wall. It smashed a device controlling the pressure in two large gas tanks and shook the plant.

STEEL DOORS BLOWN OUT

The tanks exploded. The entire structure quivered. Glass sprayed over desks and floors. Steel doors, the outside platform and the brick front of the first floor were blown out.

Firemen donned gas masks and searched through the wreckage, digging under piles of masonry and liberating those trapped by the concussion.

Many persons escaped death by the narrowest of margins.

Man Long Sought as Santa Claus Forger Captured by Woman

Wife of Canadian in California Seizes Alleged Swindler Dressed in Clerical Garb — Accused Eluded Many Traps in Ontario Cities

SAUSALITO, Calif., Oct. 12 (CP).—Lucius Albert Parmalee, the so-called "Santa Claus forger," long sought by Canadian and United States police, came to the end of his notorious trail here today, when the wife of a Canadian bank clerk clutched him firmly about the neck on a downtown street and shouted for police.

The woman, Mrs. Charles W. Wilson, flung her arms around the forty-four-year-old Parmalee's neck after her war-wounded husband, a teller of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in nearby San Francisco, pointed him out.

RECOGNIZES HIS MAN

Wilson, who lost a leg in the Great War, said he recognized Parmalee as the man who passed a $3,500 forged cheque at the San Francisco bank recently.

Parmalee, in the clerical garb he used so often to gain the confidence of unsuspecting bank workers, made no effort to break away, and police quoted him as saying:

"I'm glad it's all over."

He reportedly told the authorities that the wide success he enjoyed as a forger in many parts of Canada and the United States was due to the fact that he learned the ways of bank business while working in one in Montreal many years ago.

Inspector Arthur McQuade said

Astronomers Agreed As to Measurement And Form of Galaxy

Dr. J. S. Plaskett Tells Meeting of Astronomical Society How Science Determined Diameter of System as 100,000 Light Years

AFTER argument, discussion, and persistent observation, study and computation, extending over a period of 150 years, or more, astronomers were now practically agreed that the galaxy, of which our solar system is a part, is practically identical in structure and size with the great Andromeda nebula, Dr. J. S. Plaskett, director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, informed an audience of enthusiastic Astronomical Society members that filled the auditorium at the Y.W.C.A., last evening.

Greater significance was given to this statement when a picture of the Andromeda nebula, spiral in form, was thrown on the screen. In his summing up of the major facts concerning the galaxy, Dr. Plaskett stated that the present-day hypothesis was that the galaxy was about 100,000 light years in diameter, and about 10,000 light years in thickness.

EARLY HYPOTHESIS

This conclusion was of comparatively recent determination. According to the earliest computations, the galaxy was the biggest thing in the universe, and the lecturer indicated the persistent variance of opinion that existed among astronomers, and the difficulty which they seemed to have in reconciling the enormity of our galaxy, as compared with any other. Andromeda, next in size, for a long time was ranked as being only about one-eighth as large, until Stebbins, in 1933, with the 100-inch Mount Wilson observatory telescope, practically definitely established the now-accepted measurement of 100,000 light-years diameter.

Dr. Plaskett opened his lecture, the subject of which was "Structure and Dimensions of the Galaxy," with a recital of some of the early history of the theories, propounded by astronomers of the eighteenth century: Wright, 1750; Kant, 1755; Lambert and Herschel, at the end of the same century, who had left a computation of 6,000 light years as the diameter of the galaxy. Seeliger had advanced this to between 20,000 and 30,000 light years. Schwarzchild and Kapteyn were the first to try to make a definite count of the galaxy (which the lecturer defined as the visible stars), and the latter had advanced the computation of its size to 55,000 light years' diameter by 11,000 light years' thickness.

MODERN THEORIES

The more modern hypotheses, and the methods by which they were arrived at, were discussed in a very interesting way. In 1929 a new development arose when Hubble, at Mount Wilson, made photographs of the nebula in Andromeda, which determined its distance as about 800,000 light years from the sun, and its diameter as 40,000 light years.

This re-emphasised the singular enormity of the galaxy, which, according to the then accepted view, would have been about five times as big as any other in the sky. This gave rise to further interesting hypotheses including that of Shapley, who advanced the idea that our galaxy was not a single nebula but a cluster of smaller nabulae. Lundmark advanced a similar hypothesis, and TrumpBler, in 1930, brought forward the idea that the galaxy was much smaller than previously supposed, reducing its size to about 35,000 light years.

IMPORTANT WORK

While Trumpler's theories were not highly popular with astronomers and were not generally accepted, his work was exceedingly important because it drew attention to the fact that there was some absorbing material present in the galaxy that dimmed the light of distant stars. Dr. Plaskett and Dr. J. A. Pearce, working at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, had been able to show that the galaxy was in rotation, and the hypotheses of Shapley, Lunemark and Trumpler did not show rotation. From this point Dr. Plaskett traced the steps by which the present hypothetical size of the galaxy had been arrived at, the last significant computation by Stebbins, in 1933, at Mt. Wilson, being now generally accepted as scientifically sound. This gave the galaxy a diameter of 100,000 light years, with 10,000 light years thickness.

UNIFORM HYPOTHESES

"When we have by two entirely different methods obtained practically the same dimensions for the galaxy, we have a lot more confidence in the finality of the results, and these figures are now generally accepted by astronomers," said Dr. Plaskett. He added, however, that science might have reasons for changing its views in the course of time. Up to the present, what is known about the galaxy, is that it and Andromeda are about the same size; that Andromeda shows stars and star clouds just like the galactic system; that there are Cepheids and Novae in Andromeda, just as in the galaxy; and that the galactic system is in orderly rotation round Sagittarius, taking about two hundred million years for the rotation.

"We can safely postulate that our own system is a great spiral nebula similar to the nebula of Andromeda," he concluded as the picture of the latter was shown.

H. Boyd Brydon, the president, and Charles Bartley, spoke with deep appreciation of the indebtedness of the society to the speaker and other astronomers who had worked out these amazing conclusions. Mr. Hartley expressed his thanks in an amusing way: "You drag us out of our holes where we contemplate puddings and clothes, and make us contemplate ourselves in terms of millions and millions of miles—and feel at home there."

The next meeting of the society will be on Friday, November 2, and will be in the form of a symposium on telescope making.

SAYS WITNESS WAS BULLIED

Counsel for Indians Convicted of Murder Alleges Threats by Agent

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12 (CP). — Charges that Joseph Edwards, Crown witness, was threatened and bullied by Indian Agent A. H. Barber and others into giving favorable Crown evidence at the murder trial of Richardson, Eneas and Alex George, Indian brothers, were made by Stuart Henderson, senior defence counsel, before the Court of Appeal today.

"Joseph Edwards was threatened and bullied by Barber and others to give the evidence he did," Mr. Henderson declared after Mr. Justice M A. Macdonald said Edwards' evidence that Joseph had been shot following a row between the Indians and Gisborne, was corroborated by another witness.

Mr. Henderson argued that a ruling by Mr. Justice Denis Murphy, trial judge, had the effect of preventing defence counsel showing that Gisborne irritated the Indians. His Lordship had shut out the evidence during cross-examination of Barber, counsel contended.

During the cross-examination, Mr. Henderson said, he had asked Barber if Jimmy Moses had not complained to him that Gisborne had come to his place at night, torn the blankets off his wife, exposing her in bed; torn up the mattress and disturbed everyone in the house in a search for liquor.

ALLEGED COMPLAINTS

Counsel said that when Barber answered "no," he had followed with questions of a similar nature relating to alleged complaints of other Indians against Gisborne, but that, on objection by Mr. Sloan, the trial judge had ruled that the evidence was irrelevant.

This ruling, Mr. Henderson declared, prevented him from calling witnesses to rebutt Barber's testimony on the point.

Returning to the arrest of Eneas, although no warrant had been issued and he had not been told the charges against him, the chief justice said that the right to arrest without a warrant was clear. The evidence was clear as to what Eneas was being arrested for, His Lordship added, but it may be that Gisborne ought to have told Eneas of the charge.

VANCE REPORTS PAPERS STOLEN

Important Notes for Evidence at Hannay Trial Disappear From Car

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12 (CP).—Papers prepared by Inspector J. F. C. B. Vance, Vancouver criminologist, in connection with the trial of George Hannay at Nanaimo Assizes, have disappeared, police reported today as t' " continued investigation of Monday's acid attack on the inspector.

Inspector Vance, confined to his home as the result of acid burns on his face, hands and legs, reported the loss of the papers when he discovered they had been taken from his automobile. They had been placed in a door pocket of the car on Monday as the scientist was preparing to leave for Nanaimo to give evidence against Hannay, who faces several charges of retaining stolen property and one of having explosives.

Police believe the papers were taken prior to the acid attack as the Vance home and grounds have been under constant police guard since that time. They are puzzled as to a motive for the theft as practically all evidence contained in the papers had been presented at Hannay's preliminary hearing.

CODES FOR BUSINESS MAY BE DISCUSSED

Federal Government could take the lead in applying restrictions or codes to the conduct of business under present circumstances.

If the constitution were amended to give the Federal Government power to deal with such matters as wages and hours of work, company laws and private industry, legislation could be enacted in a form designed to implement the recommendations of the investigating body.

TO RESU" SHORTLY

The Stevens committee, which was transformed into a Royal Commission at the conclusion of the Parliamentary session, will probably resume sessions at the end of this month. In the meantime it is understood the v... of evidence already accumulated is sufficient for study by experts appointed to ascertain whether or not a code for business and industrial practices is needed and feasible.

No date has been fixed as yet for the conference but the middle of November had been tentatively mentioned. It is anticipated the matter will be speedily dealt with on the return of Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, who is due in Ottawa a week from today.

PREMIER SAILS FROM ENGLAND

Commissioner Ferguson Returns to London After Farewell at Liverpool

LONDON, Oct. 12 (CP). — Prime Minister R. B. Bennett was on the ocean tonight bound for Canada, but Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, who had been reported as traveling with him, was returning to London after bidding the Premier farewell at Liverpool.

The Canadian High Commissioner's plans to go to Liverpool in company with Premier Bennett led to an erroneous announcement last night that Mr. Ferguson also was returning to Canada. The announcement caused surprise here, and, in Canada, speculation on the possibility of an early general election, since Mr. Ferguson had just returned from a visit to the Dominion.

CAUSE OF MISTAKE

The announcement was widely carried by the Press Association, domestic news agency with which the Canadian Press is affiliated through Reuter's, and was not corrected for many hours. Ambiguity in the wording of a statement from the steamship offices led to the mistake.

Mr. Ferguson left on the Liverpool boat train, not knowing of the sensation caused in Ontario, where he was Premier from 1923 to 1931, by the erroneous report.

Premier Bennett had a parting word on leaving London, that England "is leaving the depression behind." He added, "I was delighted in London to see such evidence of increasing prosperity."

Cargo of Rubber Destroyed in Fire

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Oct. 12 (AP). —A cargo of raw rubber, valued at $150,000, was destroyed by a fire that started in a warehouse today, threatening three other warehouses and their valuable ship cargoes before it was placed under control by 150 firemen and thirty pieces of apparatus.

Brew Too Strong For Prairie Bird

HERSCHEL, Sask., Oct. 12 (CP) —Chokecherry wine, placed outside a house to ferment, proved too potent for a prairie chicken straight from the open spaces. The big bird staggered across a street and then, frightened by a dog, was killed when it flew through a window.

CLERGYMAN IS LAID AT REST

Many Pay Last Respects to Rev. H. R. Baker at Funeral Services

"A great man had laid down his armour and his sword in the cause of Christ in the passing of Rev. Hibert Robert Baker," said Rev. E. F. Church at the funeral services held yesterday afternoon in the Metropolitan United Church. Mr. Church paid a tribute to the long and effective services that been rendered the church by Mr. Baker during his ministry in the cause of religion.

Mr. Church stated that it was not a time for mourning and for tears. After a noble life, the departed had gone to be forever with the Lord.

Referring to the conversion of Mr. Baker in his youth, and his subsequent direct call to preach the Gospel, the speaker declared that it could be said veritably that ministering angels had been hovering around and guiding him to the work of Christ.

Recalling the active service given by Mr. Baker in the eastern parts of the Dominion and later in British Columbia, Mr. Church said there was reason to rejoice that the church had been given such noble and inspiring leaders.

ASSIST IN SERVICE

There was a large attendance of acquaintances to pay their last respects to the late Mr. Baker. Assisting Mr. Church in the services at the church and at the graveside were a number of the local clergy.

The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. Robert Connell. Prayers were offered by Rev. Dr. E. A. Henry, Rev. S. Howard and Rev. H. J. Armitage, moderator of the Victoria Presbytery of the United Church.

Mrs. S. M. Morton and Mrs. George Reid sang as a duet "The Far Away Land." The congregational hymns sung were "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

Interment took place at the Royal Oak Burial Park. Active pallbearers were all clergymen, as follows: Reverends W. R. Brown, James Hood H. J. Armitage, J. H. A. Warr, Robert Connell and W. J. Howard. The honorary pallbearers were Arthur Lee, J. H. Baker and E. W. Whittington, and Reverends S. Howard, Joseph Hale and J. Sharp.

SHOW SCORN FOR HITLER

autocracy, if it wins, or, if the church fight continues to grow as it has in the last few days, its retrogression."

Following services of protest conducted in all Munich Protestant churches tonight, several thousand oppositionists marched to the Episcopal Palace and forced their way past guards into the courtyard. They repeatedly shouted "Heil Meiser!" until the deposed bishop finally appeared on the balcony.

ADDRESS PREVENTED

He started to address the throng, but had said only a few words of gratitude for their support when he was recalled into the palace. His wife then appeared and appealed to the crowd, and they dispersed.

The circumstances surrounding the Bavarian bishop's removal—Chancellor Hitler's presence in Munich and a ruling by Protestant Church Commissioner August Jaeger that Bishop Meiser was guilty of opposing the State—made it clear to German Protestant churchgoers that unless they conformed to the doctrine of Reichsbishop Mueller's German Christians, they would be considered traitors.

SENDS PRESENTS TO QUINTUPLETS

President of Dominican Republic Gives Silverware and Dishes to Dafoe Hospital

CALLANDER, Ont., Oct. 12 (CP) —From the Caribbean today came a tribute to the 137-day-old Dionne quintuplets and their physician, Dr. A. R. Dafoe. General Rafael Trujillo, President of the Dominican Republic, sent, for use in the Dafoe Hospital, a chest of silverware and a set of dishes. The gifts arrived from Dr. E. Ginerbrae, Dominican Consul at Montreal.

In a letter to Dr. Dafoe, the Consul said the President, learning of the appeal for aid for the hospital, desired to send some token of his regard for the British people.

He was grateful to the British because a British warship was the first to arrive on the scene when Santo Domingo, capital of the republic, was destroyed by a cyclone in 1930.

Taking advantage of the warm sun, the babes were again placed outside today. They all showed increases in weight, with Emilie passing the seven-pound mark.

MAN WHO LOST 21 lbs.

Lost His Indigestion Too

AMUSING LETTER FROM HIS WIFE

The fat man is proverbially good-natured and easy-going. But here is a fat man accused of being difficult to live with. His wife writes to tell us about him. Just read what she has to say. Her letter is candid; it is amusing; it is worth publishing word for word as she wrote it. Here it is:—

"My husband a little over twelve months ago started taking Kruschen Salts for indigestion, heartburn, etc. Not only can he now eat anything (including my pastry), but he is now 189 lbs. only, instead of 210 lbs. What I consider more important than anything else, though, is the splendid effect Kruschen has had on his temper. He is now fit for a woman (not an angel) to live with. My husband is 60 next April, and I am 54 next June. I recommend Kruschen Salts wherever I go."—(Mrs.) E. D.

The six salts in Kruschen assist the internal organs to throw off each day the wastage and poisons that encumber the system. Then, little by little, that ugly fat goes—slowly, yes—but surely. Kruschen does not aim to reduce by rushing food through the body. Gently, but surely, it rids the system of all fat-forming food refuse, of all poisons and harmful acids which incidentally give rise to rheumatism, digestive disorders, and many other ills.

Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Drug Stores at 45c, and 75c. per bottle.

STATES GREATER CARE NECESSARY

Police Chief Thomas Heatley Urges Pedestrians to Exercise Caution on City Streets

As the Safety Week campaign draws to a close, Police Chief Thomas Heatley is appealing to all pedestrians to exercise great care in crossing the city streets. At all times, when in the downtown area, pedestrians should be alert and careful, he cautions.

During the campaign, police have seen innumerable cases of pedestrians walking out from behind parked cars into lanes of traffic, instead of crossing streets at regular intersections. Citizens are urged to abandon this unsafe practice.

In this connection, the chief points out that while an auto driver has the right to expect a pedestrian to care for himself, he must also be willing to submit to restrictions and regulations.

"The whole question is the spirit of give and take, and the elimination of the idea in the minds of many that restrictions should not be imposed on us, only on the other fellow," Chief Heatley said last night.

Adding a further word of caution to pedestrians, the chief urges all persons walking on streets where no sidewalks are provided to keep to the extreme left-hand side of the road, and thus face oncoming traffic. By pedestrians adopting this safeguard, there will be fewer accidents in the various outer districts of the city, he explains.

The dead are Mrs. Pagett, eighty-two; a four-year-old girl, and Donat Gunville, twenty-two. Gunville lost his life when he went into the blazing building in an effort to save the aged woman.

MAKES NINTH CANOE TRIP

W. H. Lambert, Vancouver School Teacher, Navigates Gulf Crossing

W. H. Lambert, Vancouver High School teacher, who piloted his canoe over the Gulf and Strait to the open ocean last Summer and circled Tatoosh Island before returning to Victoria, launched his sixteen-foot canoe, Tenebris, into the swirling waters of Active Pass last Saturday, October 6, at 4 p.m., and set a course for Vancouver, diagonally across the Gulf.

He was resuming a voyage to Point Atkinson, interrupted on August 20 by a northwest head wind, of such velocity that the Motor Princess canceled her Gulf crossing on that day and the Princess Mary missed two calls. Since Mr. Lambert's presence was unavoidably required in Vancouver in connection with the exhibition, he proceeded by steamer from Galiano, leaving the Tenebris in storage, kindly furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Herryet, of Silver Beach Camp.

ON STEAMER ROUTE

Last Saturday evening, Lambert embarked in the Tenebris for another tussle with the sea. His course followed the steamer route to Vancouver, normally some thirty miles across the Gulf. But for the canoe, Tenebris, opposed by the prevailing northwest wind, a Gulf swell and ebb tide, reinforced by the influence of the Fraser current, the course approached forty miles, all of which was across open water exposed to the vagaries of Gulf weather on an October night.

Dusk found the Tenebris only about five miles out of the pass thrashing the swift swells, which surged from the northwest. To make any headway was a hard struggle. There was no moon. The night was pitch dark. The outline of advancing waves was invisible. It was impossible so to manoeuv the canoe as to ride the more dangerous swells at safer angles since the crests could not be perceived until they broke against the canoe. The chance of hitting floating driftwood, logs, etc., had to be similarly disregarded. That the combat between the Tenebris and the sea was a hard one is evident from the fact that the run between Active Pass and the Sandheads Lightship, which Lambert covered two years ago in three and one-half hours, required nine and one-half hours last Saturday night to accomplish.

FLASHING METEOR

About 10 p.m., the dark Gulf was suddenly illuminated by a radiant light that rivaled that of day. Far off on the northern horizon ahead of the canoe a brilliant meteorite left a dazzling path that widened into a regular globe of fire before the visitor from inter-stellar space plunged behind the towering mountains north of Point Atkinson. The dull red glow that lingered for a few seconds along the lower end of its track seemed to indicate that fog covered the sector to the north, and near midnight, at a distance of about seventeen miles, Lambert picked up the mournful sound of Point Atkinson foghorn. The northwest swell died and the wind veered east and southeast.

SUCCESSFUL CROSSING

At 1:30 a.m., Lambert reported to the Sandheads Lightship in passing, and learned the sad news that his old friend, Mr. Grafton, the keeper of Atkinson Lighthouse, toward which Lambert was fighting his way, had died that day. Sped by a flood tide and a rising southeast wind, the Tenebris quickly covered the remaining fifteen miles to West Vancouver, touched Point Grey at 5 a.m., and was safely sheltered in Caulfields at 8:30 a.m., October 7.

During the last two years, nine crossings have been made by Mr. Lambert in his twenty-eight-inch-wide, battered canoe, Tenebris. He has crossed the Gulf or Strait in seven different months of the year, including October, April and January. The sea voyages of the Tenebris, which so far total some 870 miles, are limited only by the extremely restricted time at the disposal of her pilot, says Mr. Lambert.

CONDITIONS IN CANADA BETTER

Alex T. Stewart Tells Story of Newspaper Advertising to Credit Body

Business is now in a much healthier state than last year, both in the East as well as the West, stated Alex T. Stewart, advertising manager of The Colonist, in an address, yesterday, to the Victoria Credit Granters' Association at a luncheon in the Douglas Hotel.

Toronto, he felt, had showed the most general improvement, with buildings being renovated and others being erected. Montreal and New York were also busy, the speaker reported. He said he had been told in the East that British Columbia was ahead of the other provinces in the matter of per capita sales.

Trains and hotels were crowded all across the Dominion, and hotels in the East did their best business in years during the Summer months.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

Branching off from his brief resume of general conditions, Mr. Stewart gave an address on "Advertising." The daily newspapers were the most favored medium of national advertising, which was entirely different from local advertising. The papers, because of their flexibility, were the best for national advertising, Mr. Stewart declared. It could be stopped, changed or started overnight, as well as localizing the product advertised.

Some advertisements were more effective in magazines, because of the color that could be utilized.

REACHES MANY HOMES

"Ninety-three per cent of the country's homes are reached by a 38,500,000 circulation of daily newspapers," Mr. Stewart declared. Last year, figures showed that 48.5 per cent of all advertising was done in newspapers, 31.5 per cent going to magazines. But 10.7 per cent went to chain radio broadcasts of national products, Mr. Stewart stated.

During the year a total of $345,000,000 was spent in Canada and United States for advertising purposes, and of that, $160,000,000 was spent on newspaper advertising.

"Newspaper advertising is a barometer of trade, indicating by its volume, the speed at which business is able to move," Mr. Stewart contended. Newspaper advertisements, too, had raised the standard of living over the past years, he felt.

"Newspaper advertising is news that brings action," he declared.

FUNERAL TODAY

The funeral for the late Mrs. Jessie Plank will be held this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home. Rev. F. W. Weaver will officiate and interment will be made in Royal Oak Burial Park.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

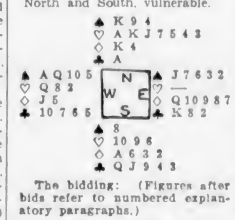

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

THE CUE BID IN PARTNER'S SUIT

One of the chief beauties of contract bridge is that new situations continually crop up and intelligent and alert players are very frequently able to invent new and interesting bids. We have all heard of the over-call in the opponents' bid suit which shows first round control of this suit through the possession either of the ace or of a void. It is very rarely, however, that one can cue bid in one of partner's suits. The opportunity to do this presents itself only when two definite situations exist. First, the partnership must have previously decided on some other suit. Second, there must be a double of the second suit by one of the opponents, so that when the partner of the player who has bid the second suit decides to make his cue bid in it, the original bidder will not misconstrue this cue bid as a simple raise, showing perhaps a desire to play the hand in that suit.

Using this bid, North and South on today's hand reached an easily makable small slam contract, despite the fact that their task was made difficult for them by a very sound nuisance double on the part of one of the opponents.

North, dealer.
North and South, vulnerable.

The bidding: (Figures after bids refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

North	East	South	West
1♡	Pass	2♡(1)	Pass
4◇(2)	Dbl.(3)	Pass	Pass
4♡(4)	Pass	5◇(5)	Pass
6♡(6)	Pass	Pass	Pass

1.—A prepared bid. Strictly speaking, South has not the adequate trump support needed to raise his partner's suit. However, South decides that if he bid two clubs — his only alternative — he would be definitely embarrassed by any subsequent bids his partner might make. For instance, if over two clubs, North bid two no trump, South would not feel strong enough to bid three hearts, which would be an inferential force, but on the other hand he certainly would not wish to pass. Having decided that there is only one bid in the South hand (unless North starts forcing), South decides to make this bid the one which seems to give the most important information.

2.—North is too strong to bid four hearts, which would automatically close the auction. Since three diamonds would be an inferential force, four diamonds must be recognized as a slam try. The two-card minor suit is the only sound force available to North. He knows that if his partner raises diamonds he can always return to hearts.

3.—A very fine nuisance double East, of course, recognizes that North's force is in a fake suit. He doubles to inhibit the opponents from reaching a slam, which he feels fairly certain they can make.

4.—North has shown the strength of his hand and expressed his interest in a slam by the four-diamond bid. He now can do no more than return four hearts.

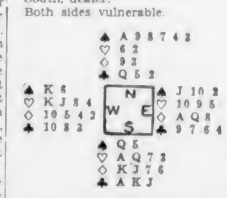

5.—South, despite his weak trump holding, has definitely a little bit more than a minimum raise to two hearts. He realizes that his partner was trying for a slam, and he further realizes that the latter probably was considerably discouraged by East's double of four diamonds—the diamond suit obviously being one of the weak spots in the North hand. South, therefore, decides to give his partner one more chance to contract for a slam. He does this by making a cue bid in his partner's suit, showing control of the first round of that suit—and almost certainly in this case with the ace. South bids five diamonds intending to pass to five hearts, as he has now shown the full strength of his hand.

6.—With the practical certainty of no losers in either hearts, diamonds or clubs, North can contract for the slam. Either the spade queen in dummy, a singleton spade, or even a doubleton spade, if the ace is right, will take care of the situation in that suit. There must be at the worst an even money play for the slam.

East chose a low spade as his opening lead against the slam. West won with the ace and returned a diamond, which the declarer won with dummy's ace. Declarer now led a heart to his ace and then re-entered the dummy by ruffing a low spade. The marked heart finesse was now taken and North was able to claim the rest of the tricks. Even without the spade opening which admittedly made things easier, North could not have lost his contract.

TOMORROW'S HAND

South, dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

This hand will be discussed in tomorrow's article.

INSURANCE ACTS BECOME UNIFORM

Aim Now Is to Bring Legislation of Provinces in Line With Each Other

The operation of the Inter-Provincial Insurance Superintendents Association was explained by H. G. Garrett before the Real Estate Board yesterday, in Spencer's dining-room. The speaker stated that while there had been much doubt, for a long time, as to the relative powers of the Dominion and the provinces with respect to insurance matters, this had now been well settled, and the Dominion was vacating the field as far as jurisdiction was concerned. Insurance was now established, as a result of the discussions of the matter and references to the courts, as belonging to the provinces.

The Dominion now claimed only the right to register companies that were solvent, and to put off the list those companies that became insolvent. This was acceptable to the provinces, as the machinery for the keeping up of such lists would incur heavy expenditures on the provinces.

MATTER OF CONSTITUTION

It had not been a matter of deciding which authority, the Dominion or the provincial, would be the better to administer the affairs. It was purely a matter of the legal aspect of the case and the reading of the constitution as contained in the B.N.A. Act.

Mr. Garrett pointed out that the conferences which were held were intended to make for uniformity of action as affecting insurance. This required careful consideration, and made for permanency in legislation as it was undesirable that the laws should be amended by any of the provinces without careful consideration by them.

Among the benefits that had already come from the united action by the provinces, was the standardization of policies that were issued. The provinces were dividing the work of investigation that was needed with regard to companies and accepting the work so carried out by each other, thus doing away with the necessity for investigation by each province of each separate company.

The component parts of concrete are water, cement and stone of varying size.

MINIMUM WAGE LAWS

Under minimum wage laws thousands of persons in the Dominion have been dispossessed of their jobs. There are a number of industrial plants which, because of them, have ceased to operate. Those laws, on the basis on which they have been framed, have put a spike in the policy of work and wages. They have, in some instances, therefore, proved unfair to the employer, and in others they have not extended to the employee the advantages or benefits intended. Uniform minimum wages in various industries throughout the country might well accomplish the end in view. As it is, they differ in provinces, and an industry in one province, through the operation of the minimum wage, is often placed in a disadvantageous position for competitive purposes.

This question of minimum wages has been discussed by Mr. H. W. Macdonnell, secretary of the Industrial Relations Committee of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. He recalls that in Norway, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Germany and Argentina the minimum wage is limited to home workers, and in France chiefly to female employees working on clothing, etc., at their homes. Mr. Macdonnell, who has made an intensive study of the subject, finds a great variety in the laws and their bases. In the United States, for instance, the basis is the requirements of a female worker without dependents. The difficulty, Mr. Macdonnell says, arises from the fact that all trades are not equally prosperous and that in some trades depression may be so serious as to make it impossible to pay a wage which would be considered adequate for reasonable living. In Australia and New Zealand consideration in the application of the minimum wage laws is given to the capacity of the industry concerned to pay the fixed rates. Without this elasticity certain companies or individuals must cease to employ, and so the operatives are left stranded. Mr. Macdonnell also discusses other bases on which minimum wages are set in various localities, one being the minimum paid in allied trades. Regarding this he says:

"If the second basis for fixing minimum wages be adopted, namely, the wages paid to other groups of workers, a minimum wage-fixing body may either base minimum rates in a given trade on the wages paid to similar grades of workers in allied trades, or it may fix them in relation to the wages paid in a number of the chief industries. The obvious difficulties in the application of such a principle are that, on the one hand, the whole group of allied trades may be in such a depressed condition as to be unable to pay a wage which would be considered reasonable, and, on the other hand, that if the level of rates paid in the chief industries were insisted on, serious unemployment might result in an industry which was already passing through a period of depression. Thus in the application of both these principles for fixing minimum wages, it has been found necessary never to lose sight of the third principle, of the capacity of industry to pay."

In effect, Mr. Macdonnell's contention is that no system of state regulation of wages can hope to succeed unless the economic questions involved can first be solved, and there has been no attempt in any province of Canada to find such a solution.

SOCIALISM'S CHANGING TENETS

It does not require imagination, or judgment, or intelligence, to realize that of the preparation of Socialist programmes there is no end. It is a kaleidoscopic political creed, willing to change any old time if by so doing more adherents can be won to the cause. The instability of the tenets is notably emphasized by the elaboration of policies which is the pastime of British Socialists. Every Autumn, as the leaves are falling, so falls away some tenet or other at the annual party conferences. Each party conference, says The London Times, "has increasingly the character of a harvest festival—not indeed of fruits, for they are all visionary as yet, but of schemes warranted by the authors to work wonders of peace and contentment." Change and overthrow is the motto, and the competition at present is in the promise of quick returns. In order to impress humanity, the date for the gathering of the fruits must always be brought appreciably nearer, and the promise grows more insistent as the election date approaches.

The competition in the promise of quick returns is engaged in by the advocates of the varying policies. The rivalry is unofficial. It, however, has the effect of making the official leaders prepare a new programme every year, and in each, as The Times says, there is allowance made of a hedge, "or, in the highway terminology of today, a bypass of the impossible." That is provided lest there be any miscalculation of the electorate's response. If that response is not what is expected, then again the programme is changed. Socialism is nothing if not a groper after votes. It is Barnumesque in its showman proclivities, and it is willing always to provide some new turn to titillate the jaded appetites of its audience.

According to the latest pronouncement of the Socialists of Great Britain, in conference assembled, "the pivot of any economic and social system lies in the control of its currency, its banking institutions and its methods of investment." Presumably that control would only be safe in the hands of Socialists. In their conception of policies the proponents of Socialistic tenets are nothing if not egocentric, for what they want to do with banking and currency and germane matters is to have them in their own hands to manipulate as they will. It is a somewhat sudden thought of the Socialists that so much depends on financial matters. Those matters have only been marked down for reform in recent years. The earlier procedure advocated was to take charge of each industry piecemeal. Now, however, the quickening up process is the slogan, and anything and everything must fall into the Socialist maw. The trouble is that the changes advocated present the strangest complexities, so strange that the public as a whole is at sea.

There is, for instance, an indication that a Socialistic policy when put into effect will be tinctured with prudence. The look of the creed as applied to individuals has caused Socialism to back-fire. While affirming, for instance, that property rights are derived from the community it only goes so far as to affirm that when the community decides to resume possession of any part of the capital wealth of the country, it has the right to require from individuals surrender of "some part of the privileges which the state has hitherto accorded them." Thus there is wincing from the logical conclusion of total expropriation. It seems that in probing into the effect of its policies, Socialism has found that expropriation would work hardships, not only on its traditional enemies, the capitalists, but as well on widows and orphans, on elderly workers, on trades unions and on friendly societies who would find their savings confiscated. Thus Socialism, as decreed in its latter-day stages, is to be a doctrine of discrimination. As The Times says: "Socialists are embarrassed by the savings of the people, and the people have only to realize that the madcap programme of Socialism would threaten not only savings and credit, but industrial paralysis as well, to make their defence sure."

APPEAL FOR FRIENDLY HELP

The Friendly Help Welfare Association has inaugurated a campaign to raise a sum of $43,500 for a year's work, and already is receiving a generous response to a number of letters it has sent out explaining the need that exists. The money is to cover the needs of Victoria, Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt. The organization receives no grant from either the Provincial Government or municipalities. It is a voluntary effort. This year the claims upon it, while reduced because of a diminution in unemployment, are accentuated in another direction. The Citizens' Unemployment Relief Fund, which for some years past has been providing clothing and some other necessities to those out of work or in dire straits for other causes, no longer exists. The fund has been exhausted, and the responsibility which it had has been transferred to the Friendly Help Welfare Association. That organization now combines the associated charities that, through benevolent effort, look after the wants of the unemployed.

There is to be no house-to-house canvass this year on behalf of the Friendly Help Welfare Association. The need for its activities is so evident that its sponsors believe the humanity of the people can be evoked by other means. The campaign proper will start on Monday next, when a strong appeal will be made to all those in a position to help. It is a fund to which all engaged in gainful occupations can contribute, and in doing so can feel that they are helping their unfortunate fellows. It is an appeal to the best feelings that inspire human hearts, and one that in this community will not be made in vain. The moneys required should be secured without trouble in view of the purposes for which they are employed. We bespeak the fullest sympathy of all so that the purposes of the Friendly Help Welfare Association may continue to he fulfilled as in the past.

I HAVE SEEN

I have seen the glint of the sun's first ray
When it touches the hill-top far away.
I have seen the glory of sunset glow
And the gleaming white of the Winter snow.
I have seen the sleep on the windy down
And the apple dressed in her April gown.

I have heard the surf in the seething bay
And known the sting of the ocean spray.
I have heard the owls in the elm-tree shade
And the rustle of leaves in the woodland glade.
I have heard the music of children's call
And the organ notes of the waterfall.

I have thrilled to the touch of the Summer breeze
And the deep rich tints of the Autumn trees.
I have seen the sparkle of April rain
And the cows pace slow down the leafy lane.
I have seen the moonlight in forest halls
And the rabbits play when the twilight falls.

And in all the beauty mine eyes have seen—
In the sunset glow and the ocean sheen—
And in all the music mine ears have heard—
In the ripple of brook and the song of bird—
I have found, wherever my steps have trod,
The beauty, the touch, and the voice of God.

—Reginald E. Eva, in Chambers' Journal.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

It is a sad weakness, after all, that the thought of a man's death hallows him anew to us as if life were not sacred, too. —George Eliot.

A dispatch of a few lines appeared in the papers a day ago announcing the deaths in Toronto of Mr. M. O. Hammond, editorial writer and historian, and Mr. J. Townson, printer and writer on nature subjects, both connected with The Globe newspaper. Mr. Townson was the oldest of The Globe's employees and Mr. Hammond was one of the oldest members of the paper's editorial staff. They were intimate friends in life, and in death they were not divided.

* * *

About two years ago when on a visit to Eastern Canada we called on Mr. Townson in The Globe office, and he introduced us to Mr. Hammond, with whom we had a long and interesting conversation on many subjects, upon most of which we agreed, but upon one subject we widely disagreed, and that subject of disagreement was not politics. Experienced newspapermen are too liberal in their views to engage in useless discussions on controversial subjects. Mr. Hammond was too gentle and kindly in disposition to permit a difference in opinion to degenerate into a quarrel, and we trust years and experience have taught us the saving virtue or grace of tolerance.

* * *

Mr. Hammond was a reformer without being a radical. He believed the youth of Canada was not sufficiently interested in the history of their own country. He advocated reforms for the purpose of remedying that defect in Canadian educational systems. He was a true lover of style and form in literature. He suggested that the youth of Canada should be instructed upon the subject of the best in literature, and should be encouraged to read only the best in order that those with ambition and ability should become writers. We contended that there were too many young men and women in Canada who believed they were gifted beyond their brothers and sisters in the art and craft of literature, and that that was the reason why the profession of journalism was overcrowded to the point of saturation and why the rewards of so many competent writers for the newspapers were so inadequate.

* * *

The point was never settled, for Mr. Hammond was called out to attend a meeting of some Toronto literary circle. It never will be settled, for our friend has received the final call to attend another meeting in a circle higher up, and where, we trust, all is peace and harmony. Journalism has lost an able and tolerant member, The Globe a competent writer, and the youth of Canada a sincere and devoted advocate of its interests.

* * *

Our friendship with Johnny Townson was longer and more intimate. We have a picture of him somewhere amongst our papers taken a few years ago in the company of Mr. William Houston, for many years one of the editors of The Globe, and a brother of Mr. Robert Houston, who until the day of his death filled an editorial position on The Colonist. The dispatch announcing the deaths of the two journalists within a day or two of each other says Mr. Townson was the dean of The Globe's mechanical staff. That must be true, for Johnny's connection with the paper began a few weeks before the death by the bullet of an assassin of Mr. George Brown, who established The Globe and as its chief editor was instrumental in effecting many necessary political reforms in the government of Canada. Such a prolonged connection with an institution should be sufficient testimony not only to the mechanical ability, but to the personal character of the man.

* * *

But Mr. Townson was not only a master of his craft. For years he wrote a weekly article on nature and wild life for The Globe which was widely read by and commented upon by admirers who did not know even the name of the writer, for the articles were printed above an assumed name. A resident of Victoria asked us a few years ago if we ever read the nature articles in The Globe, proving that Mr. Townson had achieved some measure of fame far beyond the bounds of his immediate constituency.

* * *

In one of the late issues of the Toronto paper there was published an announcement of another death, that of a Miss Thomson, said to have been a daughter of the man who was chief of the composing room and the first person to reach Mr. Brown's office after he had been shot. There were mistakes in that statement which would not have been made if the writer had consulted Mr. Thomson and which indicated that The Globe employees of the present day had not studied the history of their own institution. In the first place, the name Thomson is not spelled with a "p," and in the second place, Mr. Thomson was not foreman of the composing room. He was chief of the mailing room. The one-time illustrious Bob Gay was chief of the composing room, and Alan Thomson, Jr., was night foreman. All these facts are of personal recollection. We knew all the Thomsons well and were indebted to them for many kindnesses.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of October 12, 1884)

Residents in the vicinity of the Iron Church complain of the dangerous use that boys make of the catapult in that neighborhood. On Saturday a bullet came crashing through a window of one of the houses, while several panes were broken in the adjoining house. Of course this is not intended by the boys who throw the missiles at birds, nevertheless a serious accident may result, and they are assured that if the police catch them in the act of throwing they will be arrested.

The Seattle Chronicle will come out as an evening paper. In preparation for this, it only issued a half sheet on Monday morning. This will balance things in the newspaper line in Seattle, for there will now be one morning and one evening paper.

Improvements—The beautiful residence which E. White is having erected on Yates Street near the school reserve is almost completed. The house contains ten spacious rooms, the ceilings being about sixteen feet high. The ornamentations, both inside and out, will be of exquisite designs. This house will add to the general appearance of the upper end of Yates Street, and as lots are in great demand in that section of the city, we may look for more residences going up before long.

Mabel—Doesn't that Scottish boy ever take you to the cinema, now?
Phyllis (bitterly)—No, I think he must have found a girl who can see pictures in the fire!

SENTENCED TO JAIL ON FORGERY CHARGE

George Cross, charged with having obtained thirty-five cents worth of goods and $6.05 in cash on a forged cheque, was sentenced to three months in jail by Magistrate Jay yesterday in the city police court. Represented by Norman Whittaker as counsel, the accused pleaded guilty. Mr. Whittaker made a plea for leniency on the ground that the accused had suffered injuries so that he had not the full use of his hands, which rendered it difficult for him to secure employment which he could do.

The past record of the accused, showing that he had been convicted of forgery and various minor offences in Seattle, Portland, Wenatchee, as well as in Victoria, on previous occasions, was submitted by City Prosecutor C. L. Harrison.

The magistrate felt that there was no excuse for the accused for his actions.

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Esquimalt drydock, add 18.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the Songhees drydock, add 20 feet to the height of high water as above given.

FRONTIER LIFE TOPIC OF TALK

George S. McTavish Gives Informal Chat to Historical Association

"History is not a dead thing. It is knowledge. There is history in a stone in the sea, in events, even in the dead, and, figuratively speaking, one can make the dead live, and give to humanity greater knowledge than has been known before," George S. McTavish, formerly of the Hudson's Bay Company, stated in prefacing an informal chat at last night's meeting of the British Columbia Historical Association held in the Provincial Library.

Mr. McTavish was called upon at the last moment to address the meeting, when a quorum could not be secured so as to proceed with the annual meeting, which has been postponed until 8 p.m., next Friday.

His talk was one of the most intensely interesting discourses heard by the organization for some time. It was replete with human interest stories that revealed pioneers and aborigines of this country in their true perspective.

STORIES OF HARDSHIP

Mr. McTavish told many stories of hardship in connection with his early days, when employed with the Hudson's Bay Company at Fort Churchill. Hudson's Bay Company officers, he said, were unequalled in the building up of character. "They were men who had to realize the responsibility of responsibilities. They had to realize that although they were leaders, they also were the foundation."

Without such a realization, the company's officers never could have traded with the Indians on such amicable terms as they did.

One learned much of courtesy, courage, honesty of purpose and other commendable qualities from the aborigines, the speaker stated.

APPOINT DELEGATES TO ATTEND MEETINGS OF NEW ASSOCIATION

Ward Seven Saanich Ratepayers' Association will be represented in the new Central Saanich Ratepayers' Association, to be formed on November 6, that body decided last night.

Delegates to the new organization selected were H. H. Grist, William B. White and L. Passmore. The delegation will not vote as a composite group, but each member will be allowed to exercise his own vote in any way he sees fit.

PARTY AT SAANICHTON

The Saanich Pioneers' Society held a cribbage party at the Log Cabin, Saanichton, on Wednesday evening. The prizes were won by Mrs. G. Malcolm and Mr. G. McMullen. Refreshments were served after the game. The next game will be held on October 24.

To Give Lectures Here

MRS. T. G. S. CHAMBERS

Who will arrive in Victoria shortly to speak before a number of women's organizations. These lectures, illustrated by moving pictures, will deal with the early history of Ceylon, and also with modern conditions there as they are today. Mrs. Chambers recently drove across Canada with her husband, the deputy commissioner of the Ceylon Tea Bureau, and has taken up temporary residence in Vancouver. During a lecture tour of the Eastern Provinces, over 27,000 heard the lectures, which achieved outstanding success.

HISTORIC FILM NOW AT CAPITOL

Claudette Colbert and Warren William Playing in the Latest Epic, "Cleopatra"

Cecil B. DeMille, motion picture director, and master of the spectacle, has turned to the pages of history for his newest Paramount film, which is entitled "Cleopatra," and which opens today at the Capitol Theatre.

With Claudette Colbert, Warren William and Henry Wilcoxon playing the principal parts, "Cleopatra" brings to the screen all the talent of this pioneer director, who has come up from the beginning of motion pictures, more than twenty years ago, with each new film topping his previous one.

That his metier is the kind of film-making shown here is beyond all doubts. In every lavish, glittering, fascinating sequence, the genius of DeMille speaks out in bold, clear strokes. "Cleopatra" is indeed the finest thing he has done.

Taking the exciting love affairs of Egypt's glamorous queen for his story basis, DeMille weaves his pattern on a background of Rome and Egypt in all their glory and grandeur. More than 5,000 people appear in the film, which tells in dramatic fashion how Cleopatra and Marc Antony, the Roman leader, linger at love while mighty empires totter about their very feet.

COLUMBIA THEATRE The thrills of being chased by a horde of angry Mohammedans intent on murder, and of being attacked by gigantic vampire bats. These and many more thrills will be brought to the screen by the greatest of all modern adventurers, Richard Halliburton, author of "Royal Road to Romance," "The Flying Carpet," and other romantic travel books, who stars in "India Speaks," the feature attraction at the Columbia Theatre.

DOMINION THEATRE Aline MacMahon, Warner Bros.' star, on returning from New York to play the stellar role in "Big-Hearted Herbert," now showing at the Dominion Theatre, described the difference in Broadway and Hollywood's mental psychology. "Broadway is livelier than Hollywood," she said, "but with an entirely different outlook on life. Hollywood is depressed but not hopeless, while Broadway is hopeless but not depressed."

EMPIRE THEATRE Chic Myers' International Revue, which opened at the Empire Theatre yesterday, before three capacity audiences, is one of the finest and smartest of the road shows to come to Victoria so far this season. It savors of New York and Broadway, with a little of London and Paris to give it its international flavor. Chic Myers leads his own ten-piece orchestra in a splendid programme of the latest dance hits. This Orchestra also forms the musical background for the rest of the programme.

REVUE IS SET FOR MIDNIGHT SHOWING

Stars from "The International Revue," which is at the Empire Theatre this week-end, have been chosen to appear in a special midnight show at the theatre, starting at 12.05 a.m., Monday. The programme to be presented at that time will be quite different from the regular ones. The talent will be the same, but the acts will be new and novel.

The famous recording orchestra, under the leadership of Chic Myers, will hold the spotlight throughout most of the performance. To this musical background the various artists will sing and dance and perform their gymnastics, and offer their clever comedy and patter.

THREE FLOOR ACTS AT CABARET TONIGHT

Tonight's cabaret dance at the Belmont will present three floor acts—two by those popular managers, Alan King and Arthur Groves, and the third by Stewart Scriven, who has recently returned from a successful season at the Chicago World Fair. This excellent entertainment, coupled with first-class music and floor, make the Belmont a pleasant and enjoyable rendezvous for Saturday night.

LADIES' CLOTHING STORE IS OPENED

Premises at Corner of Douglas and Fisgard Streets Remodelled for E. Mallek

For the past ten days carpenters, painters and decorators have been busy on the premises at 1629 Douglas Street. Today the doors will swing open on a new store, the home of "Eddy's," retailing ladies' ready-to-wear clothing.

Established by E. "Eddy" Mallek, the new establishment introduces a unique policy of merchandising women's wear in Victoria. Operated strictly on a cash basis, the stock will be offered at a set price level, no single garment in the store exceeding a certain figure. Remarkable value is assured through the services of a resident buyer in the East, who is commissioned to take advantage of every opportunity for special purchase and thus enable "Eddy's" to offer the best.

WELL-KNOWN LOCATION

The location of the new store has been well chosen, being the premises formerly occupied by F. W. Francis, jeweler, opposite the Hudson's Bay Company, on the corner of Douglas and Fisgard Streets. Complete renovation has been carried out, the large display windows with their frontage on both streets allowing artistic arrangement of the merchandise. The interior has undergone a complete change, with the floors resurfaced, modernistic lighting fixtures installed, dressing boxes set to the back of the store and carpets underfoot. A special feature is the ample daylight that floods the premises, facilitating the matching and judging of shades.

Mr. Mallek is well known in Victoria, having been connected with the women's ready-to-wear business here for some time. He has had a comprehensive training in his profession in the United States prior to coming to Victoria.

Historic Mansion Goes Up in Flames

ANCASTER, Ont., Oct. 12 (CP)—Fire, originating in a spark from the chimeny yesterday, destroyed the historic Hermitage, home of Mrs. Alma Dick Lauder. With the old mansion went priceless pictures, furniture and heirlooms. Firemen succeeded, however, in carrying thousands of dollars worth of valuables to safety on the lawns.

REBEL STAND NEARING END

Spanish Troops Press Hard Against Remnants of Insurgents

MADRID, Oct. 12 (AP).—General Eduardo Lopez Ochoa, at the head of the regulars and foreign legionaries, pressed hard today against the last rebel outpost in the Oviedo region, the Government announced.

Aviation units bombed an arms manufacturing plant at Trubia, used as a fort by the rebels, and a surrounding army was expected to take the town shortly. The Oviedo Cathedral, tomb of the former kings of Asturias and Leon, was damaged in a bombardment.

Premier Alejandro Lerroux, whose rise to power started the rebellion, expressed the optimism of the Government.

COMPLETELY CRUSHED

"The only task remaining is to stamp out the last smouldering fires of the rebellion," he said. "The movement as a whole has been completely crushed. Stories of rebel atrocities in Asturias are exaggerated and unconfirmed, according to our information."

The air squadrons also bombarded Las Veredas and Los Caminos, where the rebels reorganized their forces after fleeing from Oviedo.

At Montjuich the death penalty has been asked for three or four high military officials, the most important being the Catalonian militia commander, "Mozos de Escuadra," Enrique Perez Farras.

SENTENCED TO DEATH

BARCELONA, Oct. 12 (AP).—Major Perez Farras, commander of the revolutionary Catalonian militia and Capt. Jose Escofet were condemned to death, here, today, for their share in the abortive radical revolt. They were to be shot at dawn.

TELEPHONE SERVICE LOST

LONDON, Oct. 13 (AP).—All telephonic communication between Great Britain and Spain was cut off early today. British officials said the service ceased abruptly, but offered no explanation.

From Paris it was reported that telephone communication between France and Spain had been severed.

IS GREAT BEAUTY

The girl's name, police said, was given as Marie Vjoudroch. She was said to be twenty-four years old, Czechoslovakian, and of great beauty.

Pospechil, alias Yaroslav Novak, was formally charged with implication in the assassination of King Alexander of Jugoslavia, and France's Foreign Minister, Louis Barthou, after he and his fellow suspect, Ivan Rajtich, confessed that their Balkan revolutionary band sent them to Paris on a secret mission.

Eleven-year-old Peter Karageorgevitch sped across Europe into Jugoslavia, aboard his special train, to become king of 16,000,000 Southern Slavs mourning Alexander's death, as police at Annemasse, after grilling Pospechil, announced that he had fled Jugoslavia under sentence of death for several slayings.

WILLING TO TAKE RISK

Police Commissiary Petit quoted Pospechil as saying: "If I had received an order to execute the King, I would execute the King at the risk of my own head, because this order would come from a revolutionary organization of which I am a member."

Asked the nature of the charges against him, Petit said, "I am charging him with being an accomplice of the assassin of Alexander and Barthou."

The Foreign Minister's body, lit by candles and watched over by ten nuns, lay in state in the grand salon at the Quai d'Orsay tonight in readiness for its state funeral tomorrow, as the two Annemasse suspects, deprived of sleep since their arrest, broke under their forty-eight-hour grilling.

Petit—his face haggard, his collar off and he himself utterly fatigued — said Pospechil was unmarried, lived at Budapest, and was born in Jugoslavia in 1904.

UNDER DEATH SENTENCE

Condemned to death by default in a Jugoslavia court, he fled the country, going first to Austria and then to Hungary, where he later met other Jugoslav exiles who banded together to plot Terrorist acts in Jugoslavia, police officials said.

He left Hungary and went to Munich, Commissary Petit said, where he met two other men. The group continued to Zurich, where it was joined by two others, among them Kalemen.

French authorities believe Kalemen, Pospechil and Rajtich and the European Terrorist gang to which they belong plotted to wreck Alexander's train en route from Marseille to Paris if the attempt on his life at Marseille failed.

A second attempt on the train might have been planned at Fontainebleau, apparently the forest lair of the gang, while the third effort would have been made with bombs at Paris.

OUTLINES MOVEMENTS

The gang's movements, after leaving Zurich, were outlined by Petit as follows:

All five went to Lausanne, thence to Paris and Fontainebleau and then returned to Paris. There they split up into two sections, one group including Pospechil and a man named Zilni stopping at one hotel while a second group including Kalemen and Rajtich went to another.

After several days Kalemen and Zilni left, presumably for Marseille, where Pospechil and Rajtich waited at Paris. When they learned of the assassinations they decided to leave France and were seized near the border.

NO CORROBORATION

The commissary emphasized that no corroboration of this story had yet been obtained from Rajtich, whose questioning would be continued tomorrow in an effort to weave together the complete story.

The commissary said Pospechil had been condemned to die in Jugoslavia for killing a newspaper editor, and that he later slew two policemen who tried to arrest him. He insisted that he had received no orders from his organization except to come to Paris and await further instructions, which he would have carried out.

Kalemen, he said, he knew as Rudolf Suk.

SECRET SOCIETIES

(By the Associated Press)

Petrus Kalemen's queer tattooing and French police investigations into an "international terror ring" have brought the numerous Balkan secret societies back into headlines.

Twenty years ago those organizations were popular material for news pages, as investigators sought to trace affiliations of Gavrilo Princep, nineteen-year-old Serb student, who fired the shot that slew Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria and set nations of the whole world at war.

Tattooed on the dead arm of Kalemen, whose rapid-fire pistol spat death to King Alexander of Jugoslavia and French Foreign Minister Louis Barthou, police found the letters "IMRO," symbol of the "International Macedonian Revolutionary Organization."

INSIGNIA IS BLIND

That group fights for Macedonian autonomy under Bulgaria, but investigators believed Kalemen's insignia was merely to throw them off the track.

Another Macedonian revolutionary group is the Ochrid, which urged absolute independence for that people. There was nothing, however, to connect Kalemen with the Ochrid.

Because the letters tattooed on his arm were of the Croat alphabet, some investigators advanced the theory that he might have belonged to the "Ustaschi," or Croat "Insurrector," that seeks Croatia's independence of the Serbs.

HISTORY REPEATS

BELGRADE, Oct. 12 (CP-Havas).—Every second king who was occupied the throne in Belgrade died by violence, a historian pointed out, today.

Kara - George, founder of the dynasty, was decapitated in 1817 by order of Milos Obrenovitch, his successor, who died a natural death.

Michael Obrenovitch, who next occupied the throne, was assassinated in 1868 while riding in his carriage in Belgrade; but Milan Obrenovitch, his successor, died a natural death.

In 1903, Alexander Obrenovitch and his queen were assassinated at Drage. Peter I, the next incumbent of the throne, died a natural death.

Alexander, who was assassinated in Marseille, Tuesday, succeeded Peter I.

LONGSHOREMEN GET MORE PAY

Arbitration Board Makes Award—Must Share Control of Hiring Halls

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12 (AP).—President Roosevelt's arbitration board, tonight, awarded the Pacific Coast Longshoremen, central group in last Summer's bitterly-fought strike, increased wages and shorter hours, but ruled they must share control of their hiding halls with their employers.

Unconditional control of the hiring halls or employment agencies through which the longshoremen are sent to jobs was the paramount demand of the union in the weeks of bloody struggle leading up to the spectacular mass walk-out of labor in San Francisco, last July.

Wages of 95 cents an hour, with $1.40 for overtime, and a thirty-hour week were granted the longshoremen. They had asked $1 an hour and $1.50 for overtime, as well as the thirty-hour week.

TO NAME DISPATCHERS

The International Longshoremen's Association will name the dispatcher at the hiring hall at each port, the board decided. The thirty-hour week is to be averaged over a period of each four weeks.

The award provides for a labor relations committee at each port, composed of equal numbers of employers and workers, having power to decide all questions that may arise in connection with the award.

Longshoremen are to be dispatched from hiring halls "without favoritism or discrimination," regardless of union or non-union membership.

"Subject to the methods of organization of gangs and methods of dispatching established by the labor relations committee and to the limitation of hours fixed in the award, employers shall have the right to have dispatched to them, when available, gangs and men in their opinion best qualified to do their work," the board said.

FREE SELECTION

"Employers shall be free to select their men within those eligible under policies jointly determined, and the men likewise shall be free to select their jobs," the board said.

The decision specifically stated that the joint hiring hall shall not be effective at the port of Tacoma, where for many years the hall has been operated by the union.

NOT TO REOPEN POLICE QUESTION

Ward Seven Association Refuses to Consider Change in Saanich System

Ward Seven Saanich Ratepayers' Association, last night, turned down an effort to reopen the question of Provincial Police patrol of Saanich. A motion, calling upon Attorney-General G. M. Sloan to force the Municipal Council to place a plebiscite before the electors in January, was defeated, 12-9.

The matter has been a bone of contention since early in the year in Saanich, and some months ago the municipal police commission refused to change the present system and the council decided against a plebiscite in January. However, rumblings from various ward organizations have been heard since.

Last night's action is expected to close the matter as far as that ward is concerned, although the question will be taken before an early meeting of the Central Ratepayers' Association.

WAS "SNUBBED"

H. H. Grist, in moving the resolution, declared that continually more and more municipalities were being taken over by the Provincial Police. He also referred to being what he termed "snubbed" by the Municipal Council and police commission on the question.

Councillor G. S. Eden, Ward Seven representative, pointed out that it was unfair to compare Saanich with other municipalities that have been taken over by the Provincial Police, as Saanich is the fifth largest municipality in British Columbia.

Mr. Grist moved that "the Attorney-General request or compel the Municipal Council to place a plebiscite before the electorate on the Provincial Police patrol, and if they refuse, that he step in and take control himself."

Mrs. Heck: "I wonder, Mrs. Peck, if I could borrow your rug-beater?"

Mrs. Peck: "I'm sorry, Mrs. Heck, but he doesn't get home till five o'clock."

Casts Selected For Local Plays

Casting for the three one-act plays by local writers to be presented by the Forbes-Robertson Players, under the direction of Ethel Reese-Burns, A.T.C.M., on Friday evening, November 23, at the Shrine Auditorium, is nearing completion.

Gertrude McDonald Partridge, whose portrayal of the lead in the St. John Ervine comedy, "The First Mrs. Fraser," will be remembered with keen pleasure and appreciation by the theatre-going public, will, it is expected, play the lead in "The Loft," by Reby Edmond, and the part of "Sister Mary Aloysius" in "Bitsy," by Dorothy V. Crighton. Joan Trump will play "Sonia," the "finest Portia since Ellen Terry," in W. G. Blackman's "Nocturne," a vignette of life as seen about a London coffee stall shortly after midnight. Reading for the other roles in the plays is proceeding apace, and it is expected that the casts will be completed within the next week or two.

Proceeds will be used to defray expenses of the team selected to go to Vancouver early in December to defend the Vancouver Little Theatre Association Trophy, won last year by the Forbes Robertson Players.

ANNOUNCE USES FOR BIG GRANT

New President of Manitoba University Welcomed at Ceremony

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12 (CP).—Uses to which the $50,000 grant of Carnegie Corporation of New York to each of the four Western Canada Universities will be put was announced here tonight at a formal welcome to Sidney E. Smith, new president of the University of Manitoba, and formerly on the staff of Dalhousie University.

The grants to the Universities of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia were made in November of last year because of financial difficulties they had encountered in the past three years. The uses to which the donations will be put were announced by Mr. Smith when acknowledging the welcome to Winnipeg.

FOR LIBRARY FACILITIES

The University of Manitoba will use the money for the development and maintenance of library facilities for junior students. The University of Saskatchewan will use it in taking over Regina College as a junior college and continuing it as part of the university system. The University of Alberta will devote the money to encouragement of research, and the University of British Columbia will devote it to assistance of adult education and the encouragement of graduate study and research.

John W. Dafoe, editor-in-chief of The Winnipeg Free Press, was introduced formally as the university's new chancellor, succeeding D. C. Coleman, senior vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who recently went to Montreal to live.

GIVEN HONORARY DEGREE

An honorary doctorate of law was conferred upon Professor A. B. Clark, who this year concluded twenty-five years' service on the university staff, and leaves shortly to reside in Edinburgh.

DOGS GUARD WORLD'S BIG ARMS BROKER

Sir Basil Zaharoff Also Has Personal Staff of Hindu Watchers

HANDLES MUNITIONS FOR MANY NATIONS

By MELCHIOR D'AUMONT

PARIS. — Although always referred to as the "mystery man of Europe," Sir Basil Zaharoff is really not so very mysterious.

True, he doesn't shout his business from the housetops, but everybody knows by this time that he is the biggest armaments broker in the world, and that he buys (or sells) weapons and munitions for all the armies and navies of the world. And, naturally, he hardly cares to broadcast details of his transactions to the general public. Apart from that, he is just an ordinary man in "big business," about whom the weavers of legends are free to exercise their imagination.

LEADS QUIET LIFE

As a matter of fact, Sir Basil leads a quiet life in his Chateau de Balincourt, a princely mansion on the fringe of Normandy between Pontoise and Gisors. That is, in the Summer. In Winter he prefers a luxurious hotel at Monte Carlo, where he can keep an eye on the Casino, of which he is supposed to own a controlling block of shares. Balincourt, however, is his favorite residence. He bought it from Baronne de Vaughan during the war. There he entertains Cabinet ministers, generals, high state officials, a president of the republic, and even kings. His parties, according to local gossips, are simple affairs compared with the extravagant shows staged formerly by the old King Leopold of the Belgians when he visited his friend the baronne.

MASTIFFS ON GUARD

Half a dozen huge mastiffs guard the entrance to the park, while inside the chateau Sir Basil has a personal bodyguard of six armed Hindus, who watch over his safety day and night. It can easily be imagined how difficult it is for a stranger to approach him.

At 7 o'clock every morning the armaments king is up and doing. He dislikes walking, but seldom misses a ride in the park in a sort of electric bath chair, specially made for him to a design of his own, which he drives himself. He is extremely particular about the condition of the roads and paths on his estate. They must be kept absolutely smooth and free from stones or loose earth or leaves. In fact, he insists that they be as smooth as a billiard table. One night there was a terrific storm, and the paths were strewn with broken twigs, stones and leaves. The resident engineers were faced with a real problem. They were equal to the occasion, however, and, by a miracle or organization, had the roads restored to perfect condition in time for Sir Basil's usual morning ride. In the dark, the engineers had got up, scoured the surrounding villages for an army of eighty workmen, and set them to work clearing the havoc wrought by the storm.

ANSWERS CABLES

After his jaunt in the park, Sir Basil deals with his huge mail. Cables pour in from all corners of the world. With the aid of a secretary they are all answered. Strange to think that this country mansion becomes, for the nonce, the centre of the world's trade in armaments. At 9:30 o'clock the great man, accompanied by a secretary and his doctor, and followed by his dusky bodyguard, drives to the village of Meru. His first call is at the bank, a modest building squeezed between the inn and the grocer's shop. From it are flashed to New York, London, Berlin and Paris orders often involving sums of hundreds of thousands of dollars. He rarely enters the bank himself. Usually the manager comes and stands on the doorstep while a secretary runs backwards and forwards with the financier's messages.

Then, perhaps, Sir Basil will drive on to Gisors to do a little shopping, but he is always home for his frugal luncheon, which he takes in company of his adopted daughter, Madame de Bourbon, whom the local peasants call "the Duchess."

You Must Sleep to Live

A Doctor Proves

Men have lived without food for forty days.
They cannot survive ten days without sleep.
A New York nerve specialist went a week without sleep,
And was months in recovering from nervous breakdown.
Nerve force must be continuously replenished,
Else the whole bodily mechanism fails to function.
The heart, the lungs, the digestive organs
Depend on nerve force for their motive power.
You feel tired, depressed and discouraged
Until the nerve force is restored,
And this is best accomplished by using
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food—the time-proven nerve restorative.
Rest and sleep then come naturally;
Digestion is improved and you regain health and strength.

RETURNS FROM ARCTIC PATROL

Mounted Police Craft Outside for First Time in Four Years

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12 (CP). — Shrouded in official mystery as complete as that of the great Arctic wastes which she left a month ago, for the first time in four years, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police motor vessel St. Roche arrived here tonight.

A few sketchy bits of information concerning the trip and the Arctic weather were vouchsafed by Sgt. H. A. Larsen, veteran Arctic navigator, in command of the vessel, but of the work in the Far North or of thrilling experiences, not a word.

A damaged propeller and general need of an overhauling brought the St. Roche here, the first time the ship has been outside of the Arctic Circle since 1930.

BECALMED SIX HOURS

Leaving Herschel Island on September 4, the staunch craft made most of the trip under sail, logging about four knots an hour. Captain Larsen said she entered Seymour Narrows yesterday, but was becalmed for six hours.

This year was one of the mildest in the four years the ship has been in Northern waters, the blond skipper said. In fact, there was so little ice they had difficulty in obtaining enough to fill their ice tanks to melt for use on board.

BUILT AT VANCOUVER

The ship was built at Burrard Drydock Company's yards, here, in 1928, for the R.C.M.P. as a floating police detachment and supply ship for Arctic land posts. She has a displacement of eighty tons, and carries a crew of thirteen in addition to the commander. The craft is powered by a 150-horsepower Diesel engine in addition to her sails.

SMALL BOY SERIOUSLY INJURED IN ACCIDENT

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12 (CP). — Richard Murphy, five, is in hospital here tonight in a serious condition from injuries received when he was struck by a car, earlier in the evening, at First Avenue and Commercial Drive.

According to reports, he was playing with a group of other children, on the sidewalk, and suddenly dashed into the street and into the path of an oncoming automobile. He was struck before the machine could be brought to a stop. Examination at the hospital revealed he was suffering from two broken legs, a fractured shoulder and a possible fracture of the skull.

INTERPRETATION OF WILL SOUGHT

Court Asked to Decide Upon Intent of Sir Clive Phillip Woolley as to Estate

In Supreme Court Chambers here, yesterday, Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald was asked to pass upon the meaning of certain sections of the will of the late Sir Clive Phillips Woolley, former resident of this city.

Under the will of Sir Clive, the estate was left to his widow, and on her death was to be divided, one half going to a grandson, Clive Phillips Woolley, and the other half to Mrs. Gwyther, of Duncan, a daughter of Sir Clive, and to three grandchildren. As they attained the ages of twenty-five years they were to receive the capital amounts of their shares. Following the death of Lady Woolley, the division was made.

Mrs. Gwyther died, at the age of fifty-one, a short time ago, and the Royal Trust Company, as the trustee of her estate, seeks an interpretation of the will in order to make proper distribution of the assets. The youngest grandchild who would be a beneficiary under the will of the late Sir Clive Phillips Woolley has not attained the age of twenty-five.

WRITTEN ARGUMENTS

Alex Martin, representing the trustees of the estate of Sir Clive, informed the court that the various interested solicitors were agreeable to present written arguments in the matter so as to facilitate matters before the court. This was agreeable to His Lordship, who accordingly ordered.

H. W. Davey appeared for the Royal Trust Company, as the trustee for Mrs. Gwyther's estate; C. H. O'Halloran for the grandson, Clive Phillips Woolley; Alexis Martin, the trustees of the original estate; J. B. Clearihue, two sisters of Mrs. Gwyther, and A. D. Crease, the remaining grandchildren in the matter.

SAYS WAR DANGER OVER-EMPHASIZED

Canadian Delegate to League States Recent Events in Europe Cause No Alarm

OTTAWA, Oct. 12 (CP). — The danger of the immediate situation for war in Europe frequently was over-emphasized on this continent, in his opinion, Dr. W. A. Riddell, Canada's permanent representative on the League of Nations at Geneva, stated on his arrival here today.

"From my contacts in Europe I am of the belief that Europe is not ready for war," Dr. Riddell declared. "I see little in the present situation arising out of the assassination of King Alexander of Jugoslavia and Louis Barthou, French Foreign Minister, however much it may be deplored, to cause undue alarm."

While the recent assembly of the League, to which he was a Canadian delegate, had not been as spectacular as formerly, said Dr. Riddell, it had been one of the most successful, both from the standpoint of its personnel and the amount of international business it had transacted

Dance at Empress In Aid of Jubilee Is Brilliant Affair

Season's Opening Ball, Attractively Arranged by Senior and Junior Women's Auxiliaries of Hospital, Draws Attendance of Nearly 500

THE season's social whirl began in spirited tempo, last evening, with the brilliant ball held at the Empress Hotel by the Senior and Junior Women's Auxiliaries of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital in aid of hospital funds. It was a most successful affair in every way, and between 400 and 500 guests attended.

An excellent programme of dance music, which included all the most up-to-date dance numbers, as well as many of the old favorites, was played by the orchestra, and dancing continued from 9 until 2 o'clock. Part of the ballroom foyer was arranged with easy chairs and sofas for sitting-out, and was attractively decorated with Autumn flowers.

During the evening, there were several tables of bridge and mah jong, the players later joining in the dancing. For supper the guests were seated at prettily-arranged tables in the main dining-room, where a profusion of chrysanthemums, late-blooming roses and carnations added to the charming appearance of the room.

TEA GIVEN BY PORTIA GROUP

Victoria High School Girls Entertain Parents at Delightful Function

The Portia Society of the Victoria High School yesterday afternoon held a most delightful tea to which they invited their parents and friends as guests. The first item on the programme was a half-hour musical programme in the auditorium, under the direction of R. Hammond. Instrumental trios were given by Dick Eaton, pianist; Leslie Jordan, violinist, and R. Hammond, 'cellist. Violin solos were contributed by Fay Ockenden, and a piano solo by Phyllis Dilworth, also a violin duet by Leslie Jordan and Fay Ockenden.

After the musical programme, the guests went to the cafeteria, where a most interesting scene met their gaze. The girls of the society, in groups of three or four, had decorated tables to represent the title of a book or a scene from some book or play. Remarkable originality was shown. The prize-winning table, done by Peggy Mulliner, Doris Manning, B. Maynard and Barbara Winslow, was a most lifelike portrayal of "Robinson Crusoe." In the centre of the table was a rocky island on which stood a little hut and stockade. Robinson, the goat, and Man Friday all were there.

SECOND PRIZE

The table winning second prize was decorated by Betty Cottet, Georgina Dowdall, Marion Wingate and Betty Lindgren. It was a most ingenious portrayal of the title, "As the Earth Turns." The four seasons were shown with their respective flowers and fruits.

There were two tables representing two most attractive scenes from "Alice in Wonderland." There was a charming table representing "Little Boy Blue." Eight girls attractively costumed presided over two tables telling the adventures of "Robin Hood" and his band. A lovely Chrysanthemum table represented Beverley Nichol's "Down the Garden Path."

A colorful Hallowe'en table suggested "At the Sign of the Jack o' Lantern." Incense wafted from a corner drew the guests' attention to an Oriental table suggesting the title "Green Goddess." One table that particularly called forth admiration, was that presided over by four girls in period costumes, which represented the famous scene of the inn, from "The Scarlet Pimpernel." Tankards of ale, a venison pasty, lovely pewter and copper vessels, were arranged on the table and the nearby shelf. In the background stood two coy serving-maids.

Miss Jeanette Cann, Mrs. Claude Campbell and Earle Clarke acted as judges of the tables. When the guests had assembled, Miss Kathleen Riley called on Miss Cann to present the prizes, which were pretty bangles and High School pins.

TEACHERS' TABLE

Mrs. Harry Smith presided at the teachers' table, which was seasonably decorated with pink chrysanthemums. Assisting her in serving were: Phyllis Dilworth, Katherine Skeats and Fay Ockenden.

Following is the list of girls having tables:

Y.P.S. News

CATHOLIC

The monthly business meeting of the Catholic Young People's Club was held on Thursday evening in the parish hall, and was attended by an enthusiastic gathering of members. The meeting was replete with a wealth of suggestions for the Winter season and much valuable discussion was entered into.

Under the chairmanship of Roman Weicker, a dance committee was chosen for a "hard times" masquerade, to be held the latter part of the month.

Winter sports were also discussed and it was suggested that a billiard table be purchased and installed in one of the adjoining rooms of the hall, for the benefit of the members. It is intended to purchase the table by soliciting funds from the interested club members, who will be repaid by the revenue collected from the table when a small playing fee will be charged.

The majority of the members will experience their first taste of bowling when the club will be the guest of the Olympic Recreations, Limited, next Tuesday, from 7 until 8:30 p.m. The management has extended an invitation to all the members of the club for this date, and if sufficient interest is shown in the game by the young people, a club league of six teams composed of both boys and girls will be formed.

Refreshments were served and the evening was brought to a close with dancing.

SOOKE

The Sooke and North Sooke Women's Institute entertained in Sooke Hall on Wednesday evening with six tables of military five hundred. The prize winners were Mrs. J. Willham, Mrs. K. Graignic, Mr. R. Final plans for the tag day to be held on November 2 were made at a meeting of the Y.W.C.A. Board yesterday afternoon. Mrs. G. M. Weir and Mrs. George Straith were welcomed as new members of the board, and Mrs. H. M. Cassidy was also appointed a new member. Mrs. Roy Angus, the president, gave a report of the Girls' Work conference which she attended in Vancouver. A letter was read from the Mayor, suggesting that the board appoint a representative to the civic entertainment committee, and Mrs. T. Hammond was chosen.

Reports were given that the gymnastic classes under Miss Barbara Hinton were making progress and gymnastic and swimming classes will be started for schoolgirls. Any inquiries may be made through the general secretary, Miss Blackley, at the Y.W.C.A.

The second household helpers' class will be formed in the near future.

Hair to Be Worn Higher on Head

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP). — Stylish 1935 tresses will be combed upward and dressed high on the head, French and American hairdressers disclosed today in their preview of new coiffures which will be presented at the New York Hairdressers' Show next week.

Looking very much like the fashionables of 1905, blonde and auburn-haired models demonstrated the latest creations from the comb and scissors of leading New York hairdressers.

"The hair must now be brushed back from the face, showing the forehead and the hairline," explained Christian Jungst, New York hairdresser. "It must be brushed upward in back, to show the nape of the neck. If the ears are pretty and the chin line good, the coiffure should show the ears. If the chin line is heavy, this must be counteracted by showing only half an ear."

In all the models, curls were arranged high on the head and down the back. One model, dressed for evening, wore a long curl from the forehead to the nape of her neck. Another wore a fan arrangement of curls around her ears. For formal wear, a curl of brilliants was pinned among the ringlets.

Why suffer when you can get Elasto, the new remedy that is bringing quick relief to leg sufferers after other forms of treatment have failed. You owe it to yourself to test Elasto, see offer below.

What is Elasto?
Elasto is something new to medical science. It is based on the knowledge that muscular weakness, varicose ailments and leg troubles generally, with their numerous developments and widely varied symptoms, are deficiency diseases; that in such conditions there is usually a lack of certain vital constituents of the blood.
Owing to this lack, the body is unable to build up the elastic tissue needed to maintain the vein and artery walls and the membranes in healthy condition, and a state of flabbiness results.
Elasto restores to the blood the vital elements which combine with albumin to form elastic tissue, and thus enables Nature to effect repair in a perfectly normal manner.
Every sufferer should know of this new biological remedy which brings ease and comfort and creates within the system a new health force, increasing vitality and bringing into full activity Nature's own laws of healing. Elasto is prepared in tiny tablets, which dissolve instantly on the tongue, and is pleasant, economical and effective.

What Users of Elasto Say

Equal Educational Facilities for All Present-Day Ideal

Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education, Addresses Liberal Women's Forum at Meeting—Equalization Principle Generally Accepted

EQUAL opportunities for all, particularly equal educational opportunities, the cost of which should be spread by way of income tax, in such manner that the wealthier communities would bear the major share of the burden for the less affluent communities, were held up by the Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education, as the ideal of all progressive governments in the address that he gave before the Liberal Women's Forum yesterday afternoon.

Indicating some of the progressive educational measures that are already in force, or about to be put in force in British Columbia, Mr. Weir stressed the ambitions of the Liberal Government in respect of health education, which should be placed first and foremost, and after that vocational education and academic education. This year the intention was to extend the classes and curriculum in the government camp schools, so that the young unemployed boys and men would not suffer the double disadvantage; and to extend the correspondence school privileges so as to give better facilities to students in the outlying parts of the province who are not able to attend high schools.

WEALTHY OPPOSED

Referring to the operation of the principle of equalizing educational opportunities through spread of taxation, Dr. Weir said that the people in the wealthier districts were naturally opposed. Classing such wealthy districts as "District A," and a neighboring poorer community as "District B," he made a hypothetical case. District A had $750,000 worth of taxable property, but only twenty-five children, requiring the services of but one teacher. It needed $1,500 annually to meet the expense of a teacher. A mill and a half tax would cover this at their assessed value. District B, possessing only $250,000 worth of property, had between fifty and sixty children, requiring the services of two teachers, for which it must raise $3,000. To meet this it would be necessary to tax them about twelve mills. This was obviously an unfair distribution of the cost—that District A, with four times the wealth of District B, should have to pay only one-eighth as much for education.

"Put A and B together and there is one million dollars of taxable wealth, a tax of four mills on which would meet the expenses of the three teachers required in the combined districts. District B would drop from twelve mills down to four mills; District A would go up to four mills. This would seem to be a much better method," said the speaker.

DIFFERENT ATTITUDE

"We admit the principle when we are not called upon to have to pay for it," he added. But the principle of equalizing of opportunity, equalizing of educational opportunity, was generally admitted.

A little of the history of free education in England was rehearsed, dating back to 1902, when the principle that the wealth of the state should be responsible for the education of the children had its first practical beginnings. Today liberal-minded people of all political persuasions believed in that principle, he stataed.

Income rather than property tax was now considered the fairest basis for taxation. Some people would like to see the province accepted as the unit in matters educational, thus doing away with municipal districts. Referring to the correspondence course, which now has almost 1,000 registered pupils from the hinterlands of the province, Mr. Weir spoke of the effort that is to be made to still further extend the courses available to such as well as to the 1,200 young men taking courses in technical education. The Government was paying for night-school courses for boys and girls who were unable to continue their day-school work.

BY EVOLUTION

"We believe in evolutionary progress rather than revolutionary methods, however," Dr. Weir maintained. There was no use passing laws unless they crystallized public sentiment. The co-operation of an enlightened and informed public was most valuable. In this connection Dr. Weir maintained that the great majority was usually of the silent, thinking type, "not so vocal as the noisy minority." If the projected educational reforms were to be carried out, the co-operation of all liberal-minded people would be needed to make the effort a success.

Mrs. J. S. Akins, the president, was in the chair, and about sixty members were present to enjoy the address and the musical programme given by Mrs. E. Holt, who was accorded a cordial reception after her solos, "Love in Bloom" and "Wagon Wheels." She accompanied herself in both numbers, at the piano for the first, and with a piano accordion for the second.

The Liberal Women's Forum, it was annaunced, will hold a luncheon at the Hudson's Bay Company store on Thursday, October 25.

A young woman, noted for her outspokenness, was on a visit to a wealthy but elderly bride.

"And do you know, my dear, on the third day of our honeymoon, George won a first prize in the Irish Sweepstake."

"Good heavens," the girl blurted out. "Three days too late!"

She watched him gazing down at their first-born with wonder, admiration, rapture and incredulity in his face.

"Tell me your thoughts, dear," she whispered.

"Darned if I can see how anyone can make a cot like that for twelve and six," he grunted.

PRIMATE PRAISES GROUP MOVEMENT

Commendation of the Oxford Group Movement was made recently by Dr. Cosmo Gordon Lang, Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows: "This movement is most certainly doing what the Church of Christ exists everywhere to do. It is changing human lives, giving them a new joy and freedom, liberating them from the inhibitions and strains which have hindered them, from the faults of temper, of domestic relationships and the like which have beset them, and giving them a real ardor to communicate to their fellow creatures what God has given to them."

Two lessons are to be gained, according to the English Primate, from the movement; first, that religion demands a real, full, unrestrained sacrifice and surrender, and second, the power of simple, unaffected witnessing as a call to such a surrendered life.

Anglican General Synod Reported as Finest in History

ANNOUNCEMENT of the splendid generosity shown in raising the Restoration Fund, advance steps taken in handing over to the churches in Japan and China the appointment of native bishops, and in giving to women of the Canadian church a definite place as members of the Synod, and, most of all, the election of one of the younger bishops to be Primate of Canada, were outstanding features of the recent meeting of the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada. The fine temper of spiritual life that permeated the Synod's deliberations mark the Montreal meeting as one of the finest in the history of the Church.

Reality of Disease to Be Queried

"Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 14. The golden text is: "The Lord is our judge, the Lord is our law-giver, the Lord is our king; He will save us" (Isaiah xxxiii, 22).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "He said to the sick of the palsy, I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all" (Mark ii, 10, 11, 12).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sickness, sin and death, being inharmonious, do not originate in God, nor belong to His government. His law, rightly understood, destroys them. Jesus furnished proofs of these statements" (p. 472).

SILVER SLIPPERS By Temple Bailey

CHAPTER VI

Along the rocks at Granitehead ran a primitive boardwalk. It connected one hotel with another, and between the hotels were small tea rooms and libraries and all the little places of trade patronized by summer guests, and open only during the hot season.

At the end of the boardwalk, however, where it ascended a steep promontory was a shop which was open all the year. A sign above the doorway said:

GILES ARMIGER—
RARE BOOKS

In the window of the shop were displayed a few volumes of current fiction, whose gay jackets were in sharp contrast to the dark leather of the old books back of them, and to the dim prints and sombre steel engravings.

Set low in the window, as if it modestly refrained from competition with the more aristocratic commodities of letters, was another sign. There was no name on the modest sign. It simply read:

SHOES MENDED

The shoemaker's shop was reached from the outside by a winding path up from the lower road, or indoors by a flight of stairs down from the bookshop. It clung thus to the side of the rock like the nest of some timid bird. Its windows faced the open sea, and, indeed, the view of the water was so wide and free that one looking out had the sensation of being on the prow of a ship and sailing forward. Within the shop, there was for furniture a cobbler's bench, a set of shelves on which were set forth shoes to be mended, a table piled with more shoes and a modern machine for stitching leather. On the outer sills of the windows, beyond the screens, were boxes of growing plants, snapdragons and petunias and painter's-brush—their pink and white and lavender blurred this morning by the grey slant of the rain, which had beaten the waves into stillness and had shut people up in their houses.

The storm had, too, stopped business on the boardwalk, so that it was after 10 before the owner of the bookshop arrived. He called a greeting down the stairs, and when no answer came he descended them, showing himself in the doorway as rather tall and shapeless in a yellow slicker with an oilskin hat pulled over his nose.

There was a rustle in a corner and out came an old sea gull, raising its wings in an ecstasy of welcome. White of breast, keen of eye, it had a sort of wild dignity which made it impressive in spite of the dragging pinion which held it to earth and kept it from the flashing flights of others of its kind who, even in the rain, dipped and rose, or hung suspended above the sullen surface of the sea.

"All alone, Peter?"

Old Peter stretched his neck and seemed to listen. There was a step outside.

"Scripps is coming," Armiger said, and the door opened.

The man who entered wore no hat or raincoat. He nodded to Armiger and stripped off his worn leather jacket and threw it in a corner. There had been a time when Scripps' leather jacket had been worn for more spectacular uses—when he had flown high in the air above other seas than this—above war-swept zones. Then one day his wings had been broken by the guns of enemy planes. He had come down, as old Peter had come, to walk henceforth with men who had no wings. To mending shoes, because when the doctors had diagnosed his case they had spoken of nerves and the necessity of doing something with his hands. "No more law books," the big specialist had said, "it would be wiser to learn a trade if you don't think it beneath you."

Scripps had spoken with bitterness. "Beggars can't be choosers. I'll mend shoes. My great-grandfather was a cobbler. There were many cobblers in Granitehead and nobody was ashamed of it."

Stephen Scripps and Giles Armiger had come from France together. There had been things overseas which had drawn them close. Their asset was now a friendship which touched the skies, their liabilities that they had the strength of only one man between them. Giles always spoke of his own perfect physical condition with a note of apology. "I seemed to bear a charmed life, Scripps. It wasn't fair when the rest of you had to suffer."

Yet Giles had fought through four years of it, and he had come back with the marks of it on his soul. Never again would there be the radiance, the youth, the gaiety. Never again, perhaps, the hope, the ambition. When his friend, Stephen, had elected to mend shoes, Giles had said: "My grandfather's library was his pride. He bought rare books, I'll sell them."

So here were the two shops, Scripps safely hidden in his, his sign in his friend's window. Armiger happy among his books. Or as happy as a man can be who, through four years, has seen horrors.

Scripps said now: "Dilly came over this morning. I met her at the landing. She'll be up here at lunch time. She has brought a cake. She remembered your birthday."

"How's the baby?"

"Much better. That's why she could come. She left her with William."

"Nasty weather for her to be out."

"Dilly doesn't mind rain any more than a little duck. She said the storm of yesterday blew things about a bit. Carried one of her Plymouth Rocks out to sea, and she had to row to the rescue."

They laughed at the picture of Dilly in pursuit of her wind-blown biddy, then Giles said: "It was a dreadful storm. It caught me on my way down from Gloucester. I've never seen blacker cluods coming up from the West, with a green tint, like a tornado."

He seated himself on the edge of the table and swung a foot. "Just as the storm broke a girl appeared on the rocks above me. She was all in white and with that blackness back of her the effect was tremendous . . . like something supernatural . . . or like that statue, you remember, we saw in France, when the smoke drew away and it stood out against the dark. . . ."

"I don't want to remember," said Scripps. "I don't want to remember anything, in France."

"I know," Giles shelved the dangerous topic and went on with his story. "Well, I saw that the storm was about to break but the girl didn't, and I waved a warning. She began to run and her white cape billowed up about her like wings . . ."

He stopped suddenly and sat staring into space.

Scripps glanced at him and said, drily, "An angel visitant?"

"Yes, something like that. You needn't try to be funny about it, Scripps."

"I couldn't be funny. But I'm not quite sold on angel visitants."

"You have no poetry in your soul."

"Well, why should I? I deal in shoes."

"There's poetry in shoes — seaman's boots and slatterns's slippers."

"There aren't any slatterns in Granitehead."

She Looked Like Something Supernatural.

"Oh, well, have your way about it," Armiger stood up, undisturbed by the argument, "and just for that I'll leave you to Peter's company. I'll be down when Dilly comes. It's raining hard again, thank heaven. I shall have a peaceful day with no barbarians to bother me."

The barbarians were, it may be said, certain of the Summer people who haunted the boardwalk. They bought of Giles not because they cared for old books, or fine bindings, or the association with rare minds of other ages, but because they felt that something which must be paid for by checks of three figures should be worth having. Few of them knew the difference between Ben Jonson and the incomparable Samuel; had never read Keats or heard of Fanny Brawne. They stared blankly when one spoke of Pepys, and refused utterly to enthuse over Shelley even while they bought him. Giles, lacking the commercial mind, would have preferred to keep his treasures rather than have them go to those who had no real appreciation of their value. "I have patience with ignorance which seeks knowledge," he told Scripps, "but not with these literary upstarts who buy books as they would bonds."

Little Bedtime Stories

Peter Rabbit Grows Curious Again

—By THORNTON W. BURGESS—

Oh, that curiosity of Peter Rabbit! Was there ever anything like it? It gave Peter no peace at all. No sooner had he found out about one thing than he was just bubbling over with desire to know about something else. It got him into all kinds of trouble. There was a time that he found a queer looking box sitting just outside one of his runways. It had a door and the door was open in a most inviting way. Inside, way in the back, was a bit of carrot fastened to a stick. It was a queer place for a carrot to be. Peter didn't want it, not the least little bit, for his stomach was full. But he was curious about that bit of carrot. It looked like a real carrot, but who ever heard of a carrot in such a place as that? He must find out if it was real carrot.

So Peter stole inside the box with the inviting door and nibbled the carrot just out of curiosity and nothing more. Bang! The door had closed, and do what he would Peter could not open it. So all day he had sat in the dark in a miserable little heap, so frightened that he could hardly breathe with any comfort. Then he had heard heavy footsteps coming nearer and nearer, and he had shivered and shaken with fright. Nearer they came. Something hit the box and knocked it over and broke the fast closed door so that Peter was able to crawl out. Peter had dodged into the Old Brier Patch where he felt safe. Pretty soon his curiosity had led him to peep out. There lay the box in which he had been caught, and Peter knew then it was a trap. And there was one of Farmer Brown's cows which had accidentally kicked the trap over and so set Peter free. Ever since then Peter has had a warm place in his heart for cows.

Then there was the time Peter had seen Reddy Fox carefully bury something in a sandy spot on the Green Meadows. Of course it didn't concern Peter in the least. It was none of Peter's business what Reddy Fox might choose to bury out on the Green Meadows. But Peter couldn't rest until he had found out. So no sooner was Reddy Fox out of sight than away went Peter Rabbit, lipperty-lipperty-lip, straight over to where Reddy had been at work. It was a long way from the safe Old Brier Patch, and Peter should have known better than to run such a risk. Hardly had he reached the spot where Reddy Fox had been at work than, happening to look up, whom should he see but old Granny Fox stealing up to him through the grass. Peter forgot all about his curiosity. He just started for the Old Brier Patch as fast as his long legs would take him, and it seemed to him that with every jump he could feel the claws of old Granny Fox on the white patch of his trousers.

But he was curious about that bit of carrot

But Peter never seemed to learn, and was just as curious as ever. As soon as his curiosity was satisfied about one thing there was something else he just had to know about. Ol' Mistah Buzzard had no sooner finished telling how Mistah Mocking Bird had come by his wonderful voice than Peter was all ready with another question.

"If yo' please, Mistah Buzzard, will you tell us why your head is red?" asked Peter Rabbit.

He has just returned from an intensive study of the situation in Russia, with first-hand information regarding his subject.

A total of 981 families were assisted by the Friendly Help Welfare Association during the year ending June 30, Stewart Clark, manager for the campaign to raise $43,500 for this and allied societies in the Great Victoria area, announced, yesterday.

Clothing was distributed to 2,394 persons, while a mental hygiene clinic for adults was operated. The Sunshine Camp, to restore the health of run-down mothers, was conducted, and much other welfare work carried out.

Similar work also was carried out by the Saanich Welfare Association, the Esquimalt Friendly Help and the Oak Bay Friendly Help, which will share in the collections from the campaign, which gets under way on October 15.

Despite the fact that the drive for funds does not commence until Monday, the public has responded splendidly to the appeal for subscriptions, and many advance donations already have been received.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"BITTER AS WORMWOOD"

When a man or woman is unfortunate enough to have an experience which leaves him or her disillusioned, grieved and soured on the world, he or she is frequently said to have tasted of wormwood and to be as bitter.

The metaphor has come down to us from ancient days. The allusion is to the wormwood plant, which has a bitter and aromatic flavor and whose volatile oil is used as a narcotic poison.

The earliest recorded use of the expression is in the Bible, where in Proverbs v, 4, we find, in reference to an adulterous woman:

"Her end is bitter as wormwood."

FIGHTING MUST STOP BEFORE TALK STARTS

ASUNSCION, Paraguay, Oct. 11 (AP).—The chancellory in a cablegram to the League of Nations today stated that a cessation of fighting between Paraguay and Bolovia is necessary before conciliatory proceedings to stop the Chaco war can start.

What Today Means

"LIBRA"

If October 13 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., from 2:15 to 4:15 p.m. and from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:15 to 10:15 a.m., from 12:15 to 2:15 p.m. and from 9:15 to 11:15 p.m.

It might prove advisable not to allow the fact that a Saturday may cause you to be indifferent in business affairs, for there may be a possibility of your doing some good work that might produce satisfactory results. A friend may be responsible for some very curious results on this date, so be careful you do not allow yourself to be talked into a foolish undertaking. Be watchful for a very temperamental person contacting with you, and prove your tactfulness by handling them with kid gloves. It might be wise to discourage any boisterousness, if a friend is inclined to be so, to the discomfiture of others. Money might appear to develop wings on this date, and disappear in a surprising manner, unless vigilance is exercised in expenditures. If your social activities will include members of the opposite sex, a much more enjoyable time possibly will be had than if they were excluded. Married and engaged couples, as well as those endeavoring to win a mate, will find the day more harmonious if they confine their remarks to impersonal subjects, as there may be a decided predisposition for some people to be extremely sensitive.

If a woman and October 13 is your birthday, your greatest blessing probably is your sweet, unassuming disposition and ability to get along easily with both friends and family. Your personality should prove a valuable asset in a position requiring you to come into close contact with people. Work similar to that of a librarian, tea-room manager, receptionist, or social worker should afford you splendid opportunities to make a reputation as well as money. Being of a decidedly domestic nature, a home with husband and children is the logical career for you.

The child born on October 13, from the time it is old enough to toddle, should display a remarkably sweet disposition and a desire for affection. It will in all probability prove a great comfort to its parents and more than repay all their loving care.

If a man and October 13 is your natal day, the fact that there is very little pretense in your make-up, and your manifested sincerity in your business and social affairs should inspire confidence that will help you in your business career. You should find congenial and profitable employment in educational, engineering, or literary work. The stage also offers opportunities, if you are so inclined. Your married life should be happy.

"Tell me who discovered America?" said the affable, aged gentleman in the park to the urchin, putting his hand into his pocket for a penny.

"Columbus," replied the urchin.

"Good," beamed the aged gentleman. "And why did he go seeking new lands?"

The urchin cogitated. "The call of the West," he hazarded.

"Splendid, my little man, and what is the call of the West?"

"Come up and see me sometime," promptly answered the urchin, but he did not get the penny.

RUGBY FIFTEENS WILL OPEN SCHEDULES TODAY

Attractive Soccer Programme Will Be Offered Local Fans

Seven Matches Carded Here Today, With Seniors, Juniors and Juveniles in Action — Double Bill Will Be Presented at Royal Athletic Park

Sixteen soccer elevens will see action here over the week-end, with eight matches down for decision. The first division of the Victoria and District Football League will stage another double bill at the Royal Athletic Park, while elevens in the second divison will be playing on open parks. Two games are billed for Junior League teams and a like number of matches are slated for the juveniles, rounding out one of the most attractive round ball programmes lined up this season.

The complete list of fixtures, with playing grounds and officials, follow:

FIRST DIVISION

Victoria City vs. Saanich Thistles, Royal Athletic Park; J. C. Dowds, referee. Kick-off at 2:15 o'clock.

Victoria West vs. Esquimalt, Royal Athletic Park; R. Alcock, referee. Kick-off at 3:45 o'clock.

SECOND DIVISION

Esquimalt vs. Victoria West, Bullen's Park; Robb, referee.

Victoria City vs. James Island, Heywood Avenue; W. J. Cull, referee. Kick-off at 2:45 o'clock.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

Otter Point vs. Sidney, Central Park; Davies, referee. Kick-off at 2:15 o'clock.

SUNDAY

Saltspring vs. Esquimalt, Saltspring; Nicholson, referee. Kick-off at 3 o'clock.

JUVENILE LEAGUE

Under eighteen—

Marigold Aces vs. Oak Bay, Hampton Road; W. J. Cull, referee.

Victoria City vs. Victoria West Cubs, Central Park; Shrimpton, referee.

Under sixteen—

Capitals vs. Trojans, Royal Athletic Park; Thomas, referee.

Esquimalt vs. St. Louis College, Bullen's Park; Holness, referee.

Kick-offs at 10:30 o'clock.

MANY CHANGES

Soccer fans who wend their way to the Royal Athletic Park to witness the double bill will see a number of changes in the line-ups of the clubs as they start on their second round fixtures. Victoria City, who showed a marked improvement last week when they held Victoria West to a draw, will trot out the veteran, Dan Telfer, at centre forward, in an effort to plug the weakness in their front rank. Telfer is an experienced player with a lot of good football and should strengthen the City's attacking force, while his presence should also tend to steady down the young forward line.

Holding the premier berth in the close soccer race, one point in front of Victoria West, the Thistles will be gunning for another victory in order to make their position secure. However, after their exhibition against the greenshirts, Victoria City will be figured to extend the suburban eleven.

DIFFERENT LINE-UP

Champions last season, but not rated as dangerous contenders on their play so far, officials of the Esquimalt Club will present a vastly different line-up for their match this afternoon with Victoria West. Bob Stewart, veteran right-winger, will make his return to the game and will patrol the right lane, while Mail, a former member of the Saanich Thistles, will be seen wearing a blue sweater and holding down the centre forward position, usually assigned to John Watt. "Scotty" Stewart, one of the smartest forwards in the city and the lad with a bullet drive, has been switched from the inside right position to that of centre-half, his regular berth being filled by John Watt. Another change in the playing positions of members of the Dockers will find Jimmy Hay, clever halfback, playing outside left. With this line-up the management of the Esquimalt eleven has hopes of turning back the well-balanced greenshirts.

WESTS CONFIDENT

Victoria West, who trimmed the dockers, 4-1, in their first meeting, are confident of repeating today. The greenshirts will trot out Lorandini at right fullback, and this will strengthen their defence. Peers, who played outside left for Victoria United, has been assigned that position today, and Ernie Betteridge, who worked on the left wing last week, has been moved to the inside lane.

Some of the teams follow:

Saanich Thistles — Rowe, Essler, Harper, Williams, Pearce, Speller, Holness, McCaig, Sage, Morgan and Gibbons. Substitutes: Viggers, Armitage and Crowe.

Victoria West—Restall, Lorandini, Laird, Storey, Barnes, Stewart, Youson, Robinson, Bell, Betteridge and Peers. Substitutes: W. Stewart and Collins.

Victoria City—A. Hood, R. Stofer, T. Halkett, E. Moore, G. Robbins, E. Gibson, G. Hodgson, E. Barnswell, D. Telfer, J. Payne and G. Payne. Substitutes: T. Smith and J. Gibson.

Victoria City Second Division—Wensley, Menzies, Coates, Griffiths, Robbins, Anderson, Crowe, Ralph, Adie, Morris, Gibson, Passmore, Lund, Tye and Bell. Players to meet at Veterans of France at 1:30.

Advisory Board For Cricket Is Near Formation

TORONTO, Oct. 12 (CP).—Plans to create a Dominion advisory board for cricket are nearing a final stage, R. W. Sharp, secretary of the Ontario Cricket Association, said tonight.

The movement was begun more than a year ago with formation of the Ontario association. In order to link Eastern and Western Canada cricket bodies, proposals were submitted to the various provincial governing bodies that two representatives from each section of Canada should be appointed to form a Dominion board. Functions of the board would be to co-ordinate established league activities, with the idea of improving cricket standards and stimulating contacts within the Dominion and from teams elsewhere in the British Empire.

MRS. RIEGEL WINS AGAIN

Reaches Semis of Western Golf—Marian McDougal Advances

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 12 (AP.—The last Mid-West hope for the championship of the Western Women's open golf tournament was gone tonight, blasted to bits by the one-up victory of Mrs. G. E. Riegel, of Spokane, over Mrs. Melvin Jones, of Chicago, in today's semi-final round.

It was the second successive victory over a Chicago entrant for Mrs Riegel, who defeated the defending champion, Mrs. June Beebe Atwood, of Chicago, yesterday, also one up.

In today's other semi-final match the tournament medalist fell when Miss Marian McDougall, of Portland, defeated Mrs. Martin Hunter, of Portland, 4 and 3.

Trail Rangers Win

Zonta Trail Rangers captured a free-scoring basketball fixture from the Dynamics, of Oak Bay United Church, last night, at the Baptist Church gymnasium by a 38-26 score. Ken Webster handled the whistle.

IMPORTANT GRID GAMES SET TODAY

Two Crucial Inter-Provincial Fixtures Billed in East—Turville Back

By ELMER DULMAGE
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

Because schedules are brief and title hopes can be just about quashed with two defeats in the October skirmishing, tomorrow's most important football duels in the East will bring together Argonauts and Ottawa Roughriders, at Toronto; Hamilton Tigers and Montreal Wheelers, at Hamilton, and the tricolor and red—Queen's and McGill—at Montreal.

The inter-provincial struggles at Hamilton and Toronto can be nothing but bitter affairs, because undisputed leadership depends on the Wheeler-Tiger game and the cellar is open to the loser of the Argo-Roughrider contest. Montreal nosed out the Canadian champion scullers a week ago, while Hamilton was trouncing a reputed Ottawa powerhouse.

If the titleholding outfit from Toronto fails it will face the task of winning all its remaining games and still being not certain of finishing on top.

The Tigers will be favored to beat Montreal largely because Frank Turville, the greatest individual footballer in the East two seasons ago, has just returned to form and finds himself aided and abetted by Johnny Ferraro, former Cornell captain, coach and forward passer of an entirely renovated Hamilton brigade.

McGill's strong team suffered a 10-4 setback at the hands of Toronto, last Saturday, but the redmen appeared powerful except in kicking, strong enough to make it close for a Queen's outfit that barely eked out a 3-2 verdict over Western.

Varsity will be expected to beat the Mustangs, in London, though the margin may depend almost entirely on the kicking duel between Bob Isbister and Boyce Sherk.

Hamilton's young Cubs invade Sarnia with scant hope of beating the Imperials, and Balmy Beach will be forced to put on a better show than they have so far this season to win from St. Michael's College.

Pat Dengis in Marathon Win

PORT CHESTER, N.Y., Oct. 12 (AP).—Taking over the lead at the two-thirds mark, Pat Dengis, of Brooklyn, today won the annual Columbus Day marathon from New York to Port Chester. Dengis, who finished fourth in the 1933 race, covered the regulation marathon distance in 2 hours, 31 minutes, 30 seconds.

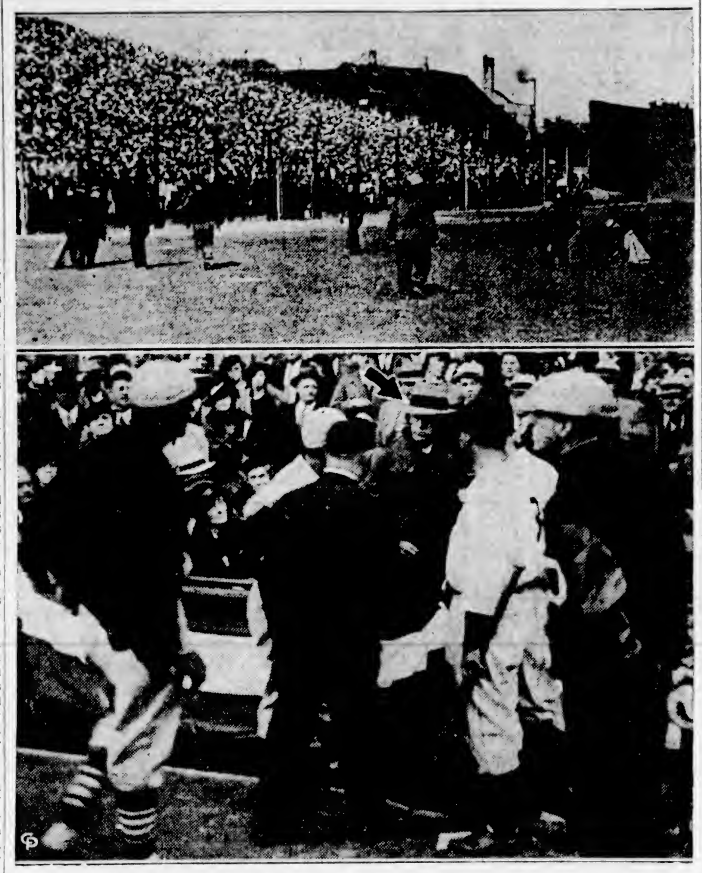

Toronto's two entrants finished eighth and ninth, the veteran Percy Wyer covering the long jaunt in 2:47:03, and his teammate of the Monarch Athletic Club, J. Shaw crossing the line in 2:48:29.

Second place was captured by Mel Porter, of New York, whose time was 2:35:38.

Return Quoits Match Billed

T. Alexander, challenger, and D. McCaig, champion of the Willows Quoits Club, will meet at the Willows this afternoon in a return match at 1:30 o'clock. In the first fixture played a few weeks ago, Alexander scored a great victory, but the champion hopes to reverse the decision in today's match.

Scenes During Series Near-Riot

A near-riot in which thousands of angry Detroit fans showered left field with a continuous barrage of pop bottles, fruit and vegetables, forces Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, high commissioner of baseball, to hold court while the final world series game, played in Detroit, awaits his decision. Top photo shows park attendants clearing up the missiles, hurled at Ducky Medwick, St. Louis left fielder, shortly after his collision with Marvin Owen, Tiger third baseman. Unable to continue the game, the Cards were called off the field and, with Manager Mickey Cochrane and Owen, of the Tigers, went into a huddle with Judge Landis (arrow points to him, lower photo). The judge accedes to the crowd's demand that Medwick be removed, and the demonstration subsides.

Morenz' No. 7 To Remain Idle Until He Quits

MONTREAL, Oct. 12 (CP).—The number "7," famed alike by ancient soothsayers and frequenters of modern dice parlors, may not again appear on the breast of a member of the Canadiens Hockey Club for years.

Coincident with the departure today of Howie Morenz for Chicago, where he will play this year with the Black Hawks, Leo Dandurand, one of the Canadien owners, announced that the number would be kept as a sort of memento of the Stratford Streak. It will not be used by a Canadien player while Howie remains in the game.

Wychwood Abbot Is Favored to Win Big Event

THREE SENIOR AND TWO INTERMEDIATE GAMES ARE BOOKED

Heavy List of Fixtures to Mark Opening of 1934-35 Season in Two Divisions — Alderman Worthington to Kick Off Ball at Macdonald Park — Squads Are in Great Shape

With Alderman John Worthington, chairman of the city parks board, slated to kick off at the 5th Regiment-Wanderers match, at Macdonald Park, local Rugby fifteens will commence the annual trek down the championship trail, today, in quest of the honors captured last season by the gunners and Victoria College. Five games are billed, three in the senior section and two in the intermediate division. The complete programme follows:

SENIOR "A" SECTION

Wanderers vs. 5th Regiment, Macdonald Park; referee, J. B. Acland. Kick-off at 3 o'clock.

Navy vs. Canadian Scottish, Admirals Road ground; referee, A. E. Walls. Kick-off at 3 o'clock.

Garrison vs. J.B.A.A., Work Point Barracks; referee, C. E. Lay. Kick-off at 3:45 o'clock.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

Wanderers vs. Canadian Scottish, Work Point Barracks, referee, Brian Hunnings. Kick-off at 2:30 o'clock.

Victoria College vs. 5th Regiment, Victoria High School; referee, H. Thomas. Kick-off at 3 o'clock.

Of the five games billed on the excellent programme, the Canadian Scottish-Navy encounter, at the Admirals Road ground, looms up as the feature attraction.

The sailors will trot out a strong squad and one that is reported to be in the pink of condition after a number of hard workouts. Bruce Robinson is billed for the fullback position, with Banfield, Smith, Staggs and Sweet as three-quarters, Charlie McDonald and Freeman are lined up as halfbacks, with Swetnam, Nixon, Conway, Nelson, Sinclair, Corbin, Archer, Marcotte, Rutherford and Briggs all ready for duty in the pack.

SCOTTISH STRONG

With Reg Wenman as coach, the Scottish will trot out a fifteen that should provide ample opposition for the sailors. Ted Colgate, husky fullback will return to the game this season for the militiamen, with Bill Hollands, "Chuck" Copeland, Elwood and Scott as quarter-backs. Bobby Tye and Mac Billingsley will hold down the five-eighths and scrum half positions, respectively.

The scrum will be composed of H. Rowland, George Knight, J. Rockingham, Bruce McGregor, Sam Gardiner, Briggs, Ian Acland, Dick George and Bill Thompson.

When the 5th Regiment put in their appearance against the Wanderers, at Macdonald Park, George Warnock, Sid Gaunt, Frank Gribble, Bert Buller and Bob Engleson, members of last year's championship squad, will not be in uniform, but their places have been taken by other players who can be relied upon to fight all of the way for the gunners.

Roddy McInnes, former "rep" player, will be at fullback, and will captain the squad this season. Other players who will be in uniform for last season's champions include Roy Haines, Paul Rowe, Gordie Scott, Arnie Philipsen, Ken Fleming, Allan Rogerson, Wally Stipe, Les Gray, Ed de Blacquiere, Dan Doswell, Harry Eastham, Alec Gaunt, Martin Deacon, former North Shore All-Blacks player, and Muzz Patrick.

WHARTON LEADS TROOPS

With Bill Wharton, husky forward, as their leading light, the Garrison will trot out a strong fifteen for their initial game in the senior division against Bob McInnes' boys. Four players have been added to the Work Point squad, which cleaned up in the "B" division last season. The playing roster of the Garrison includes Chapman, K. Buxton, F. Loveless, Stan Pocock, J. Cook, Stewart, Martin, Featherstone, Eastick, Patterson, Neil, Rowton, Teskey and Hall.

Bob McInnes, veteran manager of the J.B.A.A. fifteen, will present a squad that has had little practice together, but one that will be out to grab off a couple of points at the expense of the Tomnies. Players who will don the blue sweaters of the Bays' club will be Brian Carmichael, McKay, Beck, Joe Addison, Ted Robinson, Bill Murray, Martello, Monteski, Siddal, Shultz, Miller, Usher, Petticrew and Peard.

Wanderers, always a game club and fighting all of the way, will be led into battle by Kyrie Symons, well-known local ball players, who will play fullback. Jack Gann, C. Hutchinson, J. Preece, E. Harmston, L. Mayhew, Campbell, Croft, Moore, Overton, Jones, Donaldson, Gilman, Briggs, Scrimshaw, Scott and Banks are the other players from which the Wanderers' fifteen will be selected.

With all of the squads reported in good shape, and the grounds exceptionally fast, oval ball followers should witness some great battles as the curtain goes up on what gives promise of being a successful season. The inclusion of the Garrison in the senior division will create additional interest in the game, and will be a stepping-stone towards producing more talent for Victoria's McKechnie Cup squad later in the season.

The 5th Regiment intermediate team will be selected from the following: J. Mason, G. Langdon, J. Ferguson, B. Ferguson, B. Blakey, A. Kirkbride, Y. Ishida, R. Thorsen, R. Saunders, O. Guelpa, J. Stewart, H. Fatt, J. Gower, J. Morton, T. Carney, H. Gonnason and R. Gonnason.

WOOD HEADS GOLF FIELD

New Jersey Professional Shoots Fine 68 in Louisville Open Meet

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12 (AP).—With a par-shattering 68, Craig Wood, of Deal, N.J., a member of the P.G.A. team that will represent Uncle Sam next month in Australia, led the way today in the first round of the Louisville open golf tournament at the Louisville Country Club near here.

His eye on the winner's $1,000, cut of the $5,000 prize money, Wood blasted his way to the fore with a 34 on the first nine holes, three under par, and a 34 on the return nine, one under par, to give himhimself a two-stroke lead over his nearest rivals.

Close behind the New Jersey pro were Tony Manero, High Point, N.C.; "Jug" McSpaden, Kansas City pro, and Mortie Dutra, Royal Oak, Mich., another pro, all with 70's.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

London Is Not the Capital of England—The real capital of England is neither Greater London, nor even the City of London proper, but the City of Westminster, which includes the Law Courts, Imperial Institute and Buckingham and St. James' Palaces. Westminster is bounded on the east by the City of London and both cities lie within the Metropolitan District of London County. Within the square mile, which is the extent of the City of London, the Lord Mayor is King and rules with ancient pomp and ceremony. Where the Strand ends abruptly and Fleet Street begins, once stood Temple Bar, a famous gateway to the City. Even the King of England, whenever he wishes to visit the City of London, always stops at Temple Bar to ask formal permission of the Lord Mayor before he may enter the sovereign square mile.

U.S. TRACK TEAM WINS

Americans Defeat Italians in International Meet — Beccali Fails

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP). — A team of thirty Italian track and field stars today bowed to a picked United States squad, six events to eight, in an international track meet at Yankee Stadium, climaxing New York's celebration of Columbus Day.

Chilly winds made all the times slow, the major disappointment being Luigi Beccali's failure to do better than 4:02 in his effort to lower Bill Bonthron's world record of 3:48.5 for 1,500 metres. The stocky little visitor, Olympic champion at the distance, had little opposition and won easily by fifteen yards from Joe McCluskey, New York's former distance star.

It was McCluskey who furnished the feature of the meet, as he came back from his pace-making efforts in the 1,500 metres to outsprint Umberto Cerati, Italy's distance champion, and win the 3,000 metres by half a stride. His time of 8:57.9, although thirty seconds over the world record, was good under the conditions.

OTHER U.S. WINS

Other United States victories were scored by Ed Siegel in the 100-metre dash, Charles Pessoni in the 110-metre high hurdles, Bill Ray in the 800-metre run, George Spitz in the high jump, Kermit King in the broad jump, Dan Taylor in the shotput, and the 400-metre relay team.

Mardio Rabaglino, European intercollegiate champion, won the 400-metre run for the visitors, Giorgio Oberweger the discus, Foico Guglielmi the hop, step and jump, Umberto Ridi the 400-metre hurdles, and Becalli anchored the winning Italian medley team, running the 800-metre leg

Remember When

(Twenty-Five Years Ago)

DETROIT, Oct. 12. — Detroit defeated Pittsburgh 5 to 0 today and evened up the count in the world's championship series, each now having two victories to its credit. The game was played with the mercury at 34 degrees above zero, but 17,036 persons braved the chilling temperature and freezing blasts.

The American League champions outclassed their rivals in every department of the game, and the pitching of George Mullin will make one of the brightest bits in the baseball history of Detroit. It is hard to conceive of a pitcher having his opponents more at his mercy than Mullin had Pittsburgh today. There was never a moment when he was not absolute master of the situation, and he was at his best with men on bases. Four hits represented the ability of the visitors and no two of them were in the same inning.

* * *

The first Rugby football match of the season will be played next Saturday afternoon, when the J.B.A.A. and Victoria teams will come together on the Oak Bay field. The game will be in the nature of a workout, for neither team has gone through steady preliminary work, and the players lack both condition and practice. However, with next Saturdays' game to wake up interest, and steady practice throughout the next fortnight, the teams should rapidly round into form. The game Saturday will be called at 3 o'clock.

GORGE WOMEN TO SEEK WENGER CUP

The draw for the women's foursome for the annual Wenger Trophy competition, at the Gorge Vale Golf Club, was drawn yesterday morning. The first match will be played today or tomorrow, and the survivors will play the second match any day next week from Monday to Sunday, October 21, inclusive.

The draw follows: Miss Vivian Wiley and Miss Warburton vs. Mrs. H. H. Allen and Miss Molly Palliser; Mrs. A. T. Hunkin and Miss Jean Torrance vs. Miss Muriel Banfield and Miss Field; Mrs. D. R. Hurdle and Mrs. D. W. Morry vs. Mrs. G. Silburn and Miss E. R. Walker; Mrs. H. P. Hodges and Miss Lena Harris vs. Miss Peggy Allen and Miss Flitton.

Cupid Fans Giants' Shortstop

"BLONDIE" RYAN

INSET, famous shortstop of the New York Giants, didn't get into the world series, because of the collapse of his team, but he started on a larger series just as the championship play between the Cards and Tigers was getting under way. In other words he got married, and here is the new Mrs. "Blondie" Ryan, formerly Kathleen Barry, air line stewardess, pictured in her working clothes at the Newark, N.J., airport. The couple met a few months ago aboard a plane.

Carson and Emms On Waiver List

DETROIT, Oct. 12 (CP).—Waivers have been asked on Frank Carson and Leighton "Hap" Emms, Frank Adams, manager and coach of Detroit Red Wings, of the National Hockey League, announced today as his team gathered for its training session here. Adams also announced the purchase of Orville Rouston and Norman Walker, of the Tulsa Club, of the American Association League.

BROODED TO DEATH

SHEFFIELD, England—In 1916, a doctor in a French military hospital, remarked that Jamse Hastings, a British soldier gravely wounded, would go mad in ten years. The wounded man heard it and, brooding over it ever since, he recently committed suicide.

Blue Ribbons Hand Colonist Quintette One-Sided Trimming

Former Dominion Hoop Titleholders Score 41-16 Victory Over Morning Newspaper Team — Cardinals and Black Hawks Triumph

Making their first appearance of the season, Blue Ribbon cagers, former Canadian champions, scored a 41-16 victory over The Colonist, men's senior "B" city and Vancouver Island monarchs, yesterday evening, at the Victoria High School Gymnasium, in an exhibition fixture. A good crowd of hoop fans made their way to the local gym to get a glimpse of the Ribbons in action.

With four of their five men on the floor standing more than six feet, the tea merchants had a very noticeable height advantage, and they made good use of this when going in for rebounds from the hoop. Away to a wobbly start, the Ribbons missed a number of early set-ups by reason of their erratic shooting, and when the half-time gong sounded were only leading the newsies by the small margin of nine points. However, in the second stanza they looked a much improved squad and made their shots more deadly, scoring twenty-four points to their opponents' eight.

TRIO SCORES HEAVILY

"Chuck" Chapman, Art Chapman and Albert "Red" Martin, sharpshooting trio, on the Ribbons' lineup, collected thirty-seven of their team's total points.

The former champions had six men in uniform, "Chuck" Chapman, Art Chapman, "Red" Martin, Doug Peden and Johnny Craig, members of last season's squad, and "Porky" Andrews, formerly with the Dealats, intermediate quintette.

Showing plenty of fight, The Colonist were very much in the picture in the initial half, but they wilted sadly in the second canto, while the Ribbons, apparently in good shape, looked much better.

In the opening game, Jack Taylor's Cardinals nosed out an 18-16 verdict over Burnett's, in a women's "B" fixture. The score at half-time was 8-7 in favor of the losers. Close checking featured the game, with neither squad gaining a commanding lead throughout.

BLACKS HAWKS WIN

Showing a marked improvement over their initial appearance last week, Centennial Black Hawks, intermediate "A" boys' aggregation, registered their first win of the season by handing out a 27-19 defeat to Fernwood Merchants, who were making their season's debut. Cliff, with thirteen points to his credit, paved the way to victory for the Hawks. Alan LeMarquand refereed and the teams follow:

Blue Ribbons—C. Chapman (10), A. Chapman (11), A. Martin (16), D. Peden (1), G. Andrews (2) and J. Craig (1)—41.

The Colonist—Stipe (3), Florence (2), Jones (5), Scott, Surplis (2), Moore, Clarke (2) and Elliott (2)—16.

Centennial Black Hawks—Sparks (7), Crowe (1), Dix, Cliff (13), Underwood (2), Couch (2) and Jewsbury (2)—27.

Fernwood Merchants — Price (5), Vout, Thomas (6), Denstedt (2), Wilson, Noels (2) and Passmore (4)—19.

Cardinals — V. Hannan (8), J. Trotter (5), J. Finch (2), B. Crosby, E. Gaunt, N. Pelland (1), V. Hall and D. O'Connor (2)—18.

Burnett's—D. Beere (8), M. Purdy (1), J. Wilson (3), M. Alexander, B. McDonald, J. McDonald, E. Miles (4) and M. Caldwell—16.

Playing in a "C" Section fixture in the Inter-Service Billiard League, yesterday evening, Army and Navy Veterans No. 2 squad won three of the four matches from the Army and Navy Veterans No. 4 team. Scores follow:

Scoring two victories apiece, Pro Patria and Army and Navy Veterans cue teams divided the points in a "B" Section, Inter-Service Billiard League, fixture, played yesterday. Scores follow:

MANCHESTER, N.H., Oct. 12 (AP).—Clarence Demar, veteran marathoner and former Olympic team member, today established a new record for the New England marathon championship, covering the twenty-six miles 385 yards in two hours thirty-six minutes and fifteen seconds, six minutes ahead of the mark made two years ago by Johnny Semple, of Lynn, Mass. The event was sponsored by the Manchester Knights of Columbus.

St. Mary's Lose To Nevada Grid Team in Upset

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (CP).—The United States football picture, already scrambled by early season upsets, became more askew, today, when Tom Cashill, centre man for University of Nevada, kicked the great St. Mary's Gaels into defeat out in San Francisco today.

It was the most stunning gridiron upset in the Pacific section in years. The final score was 9-7.

At Newton, Mass., the vaunted Fordham Ram was having a bad time winning from a luckless Boston College eleven by 6-0.

Steve Hamas Must Meet Schmeling Before Getting Title Bout

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP).—Jimmy Johnston, Madison Square Garden matchmaker, and Joe Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling, the German heavyweight, between them put Steve Hamas on the spot today.

If Hamas, who won a so-called synthetic decision over Art Lasky, last week, wants a shot at Max Baer's heavyweight title, he first must fight and beat Schmeling.

Johnson and Jacobs, old enemies, met today, buried the hatchet and announced after the love feast that Schmeling is under contract to meet either Hamas or Lasky in a heavyweight duel in February. The bout may be staged in Miami.

The liner is due to arrive at Rithet Piers at 4 o'clock and to embark travelers, take on last-minute mails and some light cargo. Her first port of call is Yokohama.

On her way to California ports, the Pacific Steamship Lines Ss. Ruth Alexander will be here this evening. The liner is due to arrive alongside Rithet Piers at 10 o'clock to take on Island and Mainland passengers southbound and load some general cargo, and is scheduled to sail for San Francisco, her first port of call in the South, at midnight.

JOIN AT VANCOUVER

Victoria travelers aboard the Nippon Yusen Kaisha Ms. Hiye Maru, which is leaving Vancouver, today, for Japan, include Mrs. George Bushby, who will visit her son, at Shanghai, before proceeding to England; Miss Shirley Wilson, of Saltspring Island, who is en route to Bombay, to visit friends, and Mrs. F. G. Browne, of Saanich, who will spend some time in the Orient before continuing on a tour of the world.

To load lumber for the United Kingdom, the freighter Ashburton arrived at Ogden Point Piers yesterday morning. According to King Brothers, shipping agents, the Steel Trader was looked for to arrive late last night. She will also load for United Kingdom ports.

King Brothers have a number of ships listed to carry lumber from the local assembly plant to various overseas ports in the near future.

The steamer Queen, well-known here some years ago, operating in the passenger and freight business along the Coast, has been sold to Japanese interests for scrapping purposes, Pacific Steamship Lines, San Francisco, announces. The ship has been lying idle in Lake Union for the past year. At one time, the Queen was one of the finest vessels operating in the coastal trade. She was built in the Cramp Shipyards, Philadelphia, in 1882.

JAPAN GOING PLACES FAST

Building Many Speedy Vessels Instead of One or Two Large Ships

While Great Britain utters its usual profundities in launching the Queen Mary, and France in Gallic excitement puts the finishing flourishes to the Normandie, Japan—without benefit of publicity—is putting the paint on six more 18-knot cargo vessels, each of 7,300 gross tonnage, marking the completion of a great programme which gave her thirty-nine new high-speed ships, ranging from 14 to 18 knots required speed.

Most of these new ships are of the higher speeds, and were built since January, 1933, indicating, among other things, that Japan is in the race for sea power to win, and not for pastime.

IDEA HAS MERIT

As near as one can discern without having access to Admiralty plans, the Japanese Government's subsidy to shipbuilders was based upon the scheme of having many small, fast ships, rather than the European idea of bigger and more costly leviathans. The idea, apparently is not without merit, if the trade figures, in what Will Rogers aptly calls "Japan's Ocean," are reliable.

The present programme dates from 1932, when the Japanese Government gave a subsidy of 11,000,000 yen for the scrapping of 400,000 gross tons of old ships and the building of 200,000 tons of high-speed cargo ships. In the two years preceding, Japan had built seventeen modern ships, ranging from 14 to 18 knots speed, and from 5,200 tons to 9,800 gross tons. None of the ships under the 1932 programme is less than 6,000 gross tons.

ONLY MODERN SHIPS

Reliable reports in the past several weeks show that Japan is determined to have only modern, fast ships in her merchant marine. The subsidies will probably be extended for five years, beginning 1935, and providing for the dismantling of 100,000 tons annually, and building in that period 500,000 tons of new shipping.

Japan is going places, and she is going on 18-knot ships. That's a lot of progress for a nation that was only a silk producer until twenty-five years ago.—Foreign Trade-Merchant Marine News.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

IT ISN'T OVERWORK THAT KILLS US

You hear the expression, "He died from overwork; he just kept on working until the work killed him."

Now, it is practically impossible to work one's self to death, because Nature steps in and the body just has to stop and rest.

However, what is true is that one can worry, fret, strain, be overanxious to such an extent that the various organs of the body—heart, stomach, nerves, ductless glands, liver and other organs—cannot do their work properly, and one or more of them, by not doing their work properly, disarrange the various working processes of the body, so that illness and even death may result.

Thus, the individual, worried about business or domestic affairs, may strive or work "under a strain" with disastrous results, and it will be said that he worked himself to death. He worked himself to death because the work—little or big—was done under a strain.

How are you and I to avoid this working under strain with its wearing effects upon our bodies, because we all must work, and there is often much that may be bothering us mentally?

Dr. George B. Lake, editor of Clinical Medicine and Surgery, says: "Emotional and mental strain will, in many, produce fatigue faster than will physical effort—work. In these days it is not always possible for busy people to obtain as much sleep as they really need, so it becomes increasingly important that they should learn the art of relaxation, in order that they may take their rest in small instalments, for it is strain rather than actual labor that exhausts most of us unduly. Work done under pressure is always more tiring than done with no particular stint to accomplish."

The whole idea then is really to relax every time it is possible, if only for a few minutes at a time. Thus, the reading of a book, lying down on the right side with knees and elbows slightly bent, and breathing slowly and deeply as if exhausted, should bring about a relaxation of body and mind, that from the standpoint of blood pressure, heart rate and temperature is nearly as good as sleep itself. Careful measurements of blood pressure, heart rate and temperature show this to have about 80 per cent the value of sleep.

"My boy," said the magnate to his son, "there are two things that are vitally necessary if you are to succeed in business."

"What are they, dad?"

"Honesty and sagacity."

"What is honesty?"

"Always—no matter what happens or how adversely it may affect you—always keep your word once you have given it."

"And sagacity?"

"Never give it."

Australians Are Seeking to Sell Films in Orient

Announcing that Australia is now producing first-class talking pictures under the direction of American master technicians, Eric Railton, representative of the British Films of Australia, has arrived in Tokio, states Trans-Pacific, to test the Japanese market.

"First," he said, "we had to learn the value of our product by home consumption. Our films were so well received in Australia that the producers felt confident they would be equally as attractive in other parts of the world. Not only have we engaged the greatest technical experts that we can find in Hollywood, but we have equipped our studios with the latest appliances.

"We are not confining ourselves to the travelogue type of picture. Recently we have branched out into comedy, and into drama of a type that we think is good. So far as Australian records show, the box-office return has been big."

LONG DEFENCE LINE FORECAST

Hongkong Telegraph Tells of Anglo-American Plans for Pacific

"Reports emanating from European diplomatic circles say that if the forthcoming naval conference reaches a deadlock, an agreement between Great Britain and the United States to draw an Anglo-American naval defence line connecting Alaska with Australia is likely to be concluded," The Telegraph, an influential Hongkong newspaper, under British management, stated recently, referring to the Anglo-American naval policy toward Japan.

The paper continues: "The joint strategic scheme consists in the construction of a new naval base in Australia, by Britain, which will harbor United States warships if necessary. This is envisaged in anticipation of naval competition as a result of the Japanese insistence for naval parity.

"Although no sign is given by either Government with the Anglo-American entente scheme, the realization of such a plan can be imagined in view of the common interest shared by the two countries in the Pacific," concluded the paper.

Flying Mail Speeds Latest Fashions to Far Distant Places

Hat and Gown Models Transported Along Empire Air Lines — Articles Receive Careful Handling While in Transit

LONDON, Oct. 12.—In addition to the advantages which it offers to the business world, and to all travelers who are in haste, air transport is now proving of greater value every day to the world of fashion, accelerating as it does the dispatch of the latest modes from Paris to London, and quickening the transit of new models, in the shape of hats and gowns, to points far-distant from London along the Empire air-lines.

Only the other day, in connection with a new style of hat for Autumn wear, a model which had been evolved in London was, within twenty-four hours of its creation, en route from London by air more than 6,000 miles away. It reached its destination in eight days and the fashion store which displayed this new model was able to do so twenty days or more earlier than would have been the case had that hat gone by ordinary surface routes.

Another instance of the value of the air-mail in the dispatch of urgently-required fashion goods was forthcoming during the visit which Prince George paid to South Africa. Prior to his arrival in Johannesburg, there was such a rush on the millinery establishments, by members of the fair sex, that all the smartest models were soon disposed of. There was, in fact, after a few days, something of a famine in hats and frocks, and local establishments were in dispair until somebody thought of the air mail. This led to a hasty cable being sent to London, and the situation was saved by the arrival on the next air-liner, only nine days later, of a fresh consignment of the latest hats and frocks.

Owing to the careful handling which each article receives, eliminating any risk of crushing or similar damage, air transport provides an ideal means for the dispatch of such fragile articles as hats, frocks, or other fashion goods.

Fashion experts now fly regularly from London to Paris to inspect the latest models, while specimens of new creations are, within a few hours of their production, flown from the French capital to London and exhibited in the West End shops. More and more women shoppers, too, are taking advantage of the fact that they can fly over to Paris in the morning, do a round of shopping in the French capital, and be back again in London that same evening.

Engineers Blast Passage to Sea For Great Liner

ST. NAZAIRE, France, Oct. 12.—Engineers have begun blasting a special channel to permit passage to the sea of the new French liner Normandie, imprisoned by her bulk at her basin in the mouth of the River Loire.

The draught of the liner has been greatly increased from the estimate when she was first laid down, and is blocked in the basin of the Penhoet Shipyard by an old wreck which obstructs the deepest part of the Loire estuary.

The British steamer Vernon sank in the channel in 1899, after a collision with the freighter Penfold. The wreck was partly removed in 1900 to clear the channel for the largest ships then in existence, but no engineer in those days dreamed of a leviathan like the Normandie.

Father: "That young man of yours stays very late. Doesn't he know how to say good night?"

Daughter: "Oh yes, dad; better than any other boy I ever knew."—Boston Transcript.

COLUMBUS DISCOVERED INDIA!

To the end of his life Christopher Columbus was convinced that he had landed on the shores of India.

Such misdirection, however valuable it proved to be 400 years ago, would be most inconvenient were it applied today to our modern passenger and express systems.

The "COACH LINES" has built up a very efficient EXPRESS SERVICE to all points on its routes. This service is the fastest and cheapest on the Island—shipments being carried on three trips daily to Nanaimo and way points and two trips daily to points north.

CARIBOO GOLD BRICK LARGER

Output for September Shows Big Increase Over August Production

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12.—Production from the Cariboo Gold Quartz gold mine for September amounted to 1,754 ounces, being 417 ounces more than for August, according to an official announcement by J. R. V. Dunlop, secretary of the company, today.

This recovery was from an average of ninety tons of ore per day. The mill is running satisfactorily, with plenty of ore in sight, says Mr. Dunlop, and milling will be gradually stepped up to at least 110 tons per day, with a possible maximum of 120 tons.

The brick was shipped out, today, and while its dollar value is not known exactly, due to fluctuation in the price of gold bullion at Ottawa, it is expected that it will approximate $45,000.

Underground development is satisfactory to the management, and more ore is gradually being placed in sight.

WHAT'S DOING ON THE LOCAL RETAIL PRODUCE MARKET

Poor crops and proximity of the end of the Valencia orange season, in California, have caused a retail price jump in this commodity from two to five cents, wholesalers reported yesterday. Wholesale prices have advanced fifty cents a crate in the last few days.

Navel oranges will be shipped here on November 1, but until that time buyers will have to pay slightly more than they have been accustomed in recent weeks.

Along with the oranges, lemons and grapefruit have also advanced slightly to retail buyers. Lemons are twenty-five cents and fifty cents more on the wholesale market than earlier in the week. Although grapefruit is up slightly, this breakfast fruit will become much cheaper inside of two weeks, when a new crop is shipped here, wholesalers stated.

Sooke turnips, although no larger than grown elsewhere, are trickling into local stores. Last year's price was slightly lower than the 1934 cost, which is between one and a half and two cents a pound. Prices will be cheaper.

The first cargo of Delicious and Newtown apples will be freighted here today. Armstrong onions were being unloaded yesterday.

The first shipment of Concord grapes from Ladysmith took their place on local store shelves, yesterday. The quality is better than the locally-grown product, said wholesalers.

Local apples are selling freely on the city market. The butter and egg market remains firm, with no changes reported in the last week.

WHEAT PRICES BREAK SHARPLY

Futures Drop Two Cents as Export Demand Takes Sudden Slump

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12 (CP).—Affected by a lull in export demand and weakness at Liverpool, wheat futures prices slipped sharply lower on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. At the close, values were down 2 to 1 3-4 cents; October to 79 3-4c; December, 80 5-8 to 7-8c, and May, 85 3-4 to 1-2c.

Rains over Australia's wheat lands caused liquidation of futures in the Liverpool mart, and tended to halt buying operations of millers. Prices closed with net losses of 1 1-2d to 1 5-8d and resulted in liberal selling here.

Cash grains continued active with good demand again being shown for higher grades of wheat. Coarse grains futures dipped in sympathy with wheat, flax leading the way with a 5-cent recession.

PRODUCE MARKET

Following is the market letter issued yesterday by the Provincial Department of Agriculture:

AT VICTORIA

Weather conditions during the week have been good, and accordingly the fruit and vegetable movement has benefitted. There has been quite a run on McIntosh apples. Delicious is on the market today and selling, extra fancy $2.10, fancy $1.90 and "C" grade $1.65 a box. Bulk McIntosh is quoted at 3 1-2c and Jonathan 3c pound. Pear prices are unchanged at from 80c to $1.25 box, according to the grade. Hothouse tomatoes are from $1.90 to $2.35 a crate. Okanagan and Kamloops onions are on sale at $1.65 for No. 1, and $1.55 cwt. No. 2. Cabbage is now at 1 1-2c pound. Cauliflower at $1.50, celery 65c to 75c, cucumbers 45c and lettuce 45c dozen. Squash and pumpkin at 2c per pound. A carload of potatoes, main-line Gems, in 25-pound sacks, arrived during the week. There are selling, wholesale, at 24c a sack. Other potato prices unchanged.

AT VANCOUVER

Business on the wholesale fruit row appears to be normal. Prices remain firm in most commodities, with very few changes. Bulk Jonathan apples are now on the market and offered at 2 1-2c to 3c per pound. Other apple prices: Delicious, fancy, $2.00 box; McIntosh Red and Winter Banana, $1.50, fancy grade. Tomato prices are unchanged at $2.25 crate for hothouse and field product at $1.25 lug. Egg prices remain firm. There is still a shortage of Grade "A" large. The mediums are picking up and Pee Wees are decreasing slightly and coming into the pullet class. No eggs have been shipped out this week, the local market taking care of the production. Poultry, pork and veal prices are unchanged. There is a general decline in the wholesale price of most grains, and mill feeds have followed in the downward trend. Wheat, No. 1, $31.00 ton; No. 2, $29.00; oats, $30.00; barley, 3 C.W., $31.00; ground barley, $33.00; corn, $39.00; cracked corn, $41.00; bran, $27.00; shorts, $28.00; middlings, $33.00; scratch feed, $36.00; ground re-cleaned screenings, $23.00; semi-cleaned screenings, $19.00; lay mash, $38.00; clover and timothy hay, $16.00; alfalfa, $21.00. The following are importations into Vancouver, October 4 to 10 inclusive (figures represent pounds): Washington, 4,120 melons, 20,064 prunes, 6,020 cantaloupes, 5,875 cranberries, 560 eggplant, 30,000 onions and 2,800 peaches from Oregon; California, 72,455 grapes, 650 green peas, 500 peppers, 120 lettuce.

AT CALGARY

Business is reported as being very quiet for this week. McIntosh fancy bulk is practically the only apple in demand. Wholesalers covering Southern Alberta territory still complain of truckers from Creston and Grand Forks areas demoralizing the apple business. Potato shippers in Southern Alberta are making every effort to fill the large number of carlot orders from Saskatchewan and Central Alberta points. Weather clear and warm.

AT SEATTLE

California lettuce is wholesaling at $2.75 crate. Local lettuce at $1.00 crate, with top quality bringing up to $1.50. Pasco lettuce deal ready to start. Local tomato market weaker, with receipts fairly liberal. Prices eased off from a top of 50c down to 20c crate. Celery market weak, supplies liberal at from 50c to 60c crate. Yakima pears, extra fancy, $1.85 and fancy $1.65 box. Good demand for cranberries. Small shipments arriving from Auburn district are bringing $3.00 per quarter barrel. Two convictions and fines of $50.00 each, with costs, were made within a week here, one for misbranding and selling cull potatoes in No. 2 sacks, the other for the sale of wormy apples. Inspectors are on the job and taking immediate action against goods that do not comply with state grade regulations.

TERRIERS TO VISIT COAST

Mann Cup Holders Ignore Canadian Lacrosse Body and Will Travel

ORILLIA, Ont., Oct. 12 (CP).—Ignoring the threat of suspension for club and players by the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Association, R. J. Miller, of the Orillia lacrosse team, today wired the St. Helen's Club, of Vancouver, that the Terriers intend to start tonight for the five-game challenge series in the Pacific Coast city.

Permission to make the trip was given by Fred Waghorne, head of the Ontario lacrosse body, but the Canadian association decided the parent body's ruling held, since the proposed series was inter-provincial.

EVERYTHING SET

Miller said he could not understand the attitude of the C.A.L.A., and declared Orillia's Terriers had received Waghorne's OK, and that the St. Helen's club had wired they had permission from the British Columbia association.

"They are sore at us," said W. L. Pratt, Terriers' president, "because we did not go West, and the Mann Cup series did not turn out to be such a financial success as they hoped. But we fulfilled all our obligations and I don't see why we should be penalized for this.

"It was the East's turn for the series and it was the C.A.L.A. which selected for the games, not ourselves. We wanted them in Orillia or, failing that, in Toronto."

A. H. Tudhope, manager and vice-president of the club, said the team would not change its plans, claiming it was justified in ignoring the "unfair attitude" of the C.A.L.A.

INTER-SCHOOL EVENTS BILLED

Brentwood College Athletes to Perform on Mainland During Week-End

For the purpose of competiting against students of St. George's School, Vancouver, in a rowing race, a basketball game and a badminton match, seven athletes from Brentwood College will leave for the Mainland on this afternoon's boat. The boys making the trip are: Bob West, Ted Williams, George Kidd, Al Rutschow, R. Thwaites, Darce Barrett-Leonard and M. Symons.

This evening the basketball squad composed of West, Williams, Kidd, Rutschow and Thwaites will meet the Vancouver five, while on Sunday, Williams and Barrett-Leonard will carry Brentwood's colors into battle in the badminton fixture.

The rowing race will be held tomorrow afternoon with the following crew representing Brentwood: West, stroke; Thwaites, number three; Barrett - Leonard, number two, and Symons, bow.

The Brentwood boys have been in strict training the last few weeks and are in fine shape for the invasion. Bud Hocking has been training the basketball team, Drennan Hincks the badminton players, and M. H. Ellis, headmaster at the school, has been looking after the oarsmen.

This will be a return invasion, the St. George's athletes having visited Brentwood earlier in the year.

MAN LONG SOUGHT IS CAPTURED BY WOMAN

Parmalee admitted he had cashed forged cheques during the last fourteen years to a total of $50,000.

OPERATED IN ONTARIO

A few years ago he was a veritable plague in Toronto and other centres in that part of Ontario. Police set many traps to catch the pseudo-cleric, but he was always a few jumps ahead of them. His forgeries were expert and almost baffled detection.

When Wilson sighted his suspect on the street today, he told his wife: "That's the man!"

Without stopping to think of the possible danger to herself, Mrs. Wilson jumped out of their automobile, seized Parmalee about the neck with all her strength, and shouted for help. A nearby policeman collared Parmalee.

HAD SIMPLE SYSTEM

On being questioned in a police cell, Parmalee reportedly revealed his mode of operation without hesitation. His system, Inspector McQuade said, was simplicity itself.

Parmalee told the officer, the latter said, that he opened small accounts in banks, cashed several small cheques to obtain the cashier's signature, and then "put over a forgery" for a big sum on another cashier in the same bank.

He operated during the Christmas rush each year, always dressed as a clergyman, McQuade said.

Thus he came to be known as the "Santa Claus forger."

Three Cars Meet In One Accident

Three automobiles were involved in one traffic accident at the intersection of Shelbourne and Haultain Streets, shortly before 8 o'clock last night.

Two automobiles collided directly at the intersection and when one got out of control, after the collision, it ran into a third. Mrs. Oscar Jensen, Mount Tolmie, was the only person injured and she received a cut over the eye and possible fracture of the nasal bone, and was taken to the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

The automobiles involved in the accident were driven by Robert Godfrey, Vernon Denton and Oscar Jensen.

EIGHT YEARS' EFFORT HAVE LITTLE RESULT

THE REAL DANGER

Referring to India, a warm subject of debate at the recent National Party Convention, Mr. Chamberlain said the danger of a surrender of India would not come from any policies of the National Government, but from the possible election to power of a Socialist Government.

It was quite possible that final conclusions on the new status of India would be different from those in the White Paper now subject of an inquiry by a select Parliamentary committee, the Chancellor reminded his hearers. It was possible that an entirely new situation would be created, and it was premature for the party to be discussing the White Paper when they did not know whether the White Paper—based on self-government with safeguards—was to be the real foundation of final proposals.

"I feel that all our party should recollect that, if in consequence of differences in our party about India we were to let the Socialists come in, then George Lansbury has stated they would at once call a constituent assembly in India, and hand over to that body the formation of a constitution for India."

TO INSURE SAFETY

On the armaments question, Mr. Chamberlain pointed out that the National Conference had given full support for any expenditure the British Government thought necessary "to insure the safety of the country."

The Government would incur a terrible responsibility if some day through its neglect, "this country found itself unable to protect itself from hostile attacks," he said.

He attacked David Lloyd George for saying the Government's programme of strengthening defences might lead to war. "Mr. Lloyd George," he said, "evidently has tired of growing potatoes," referring to recent publicity given to the war-time Premier's agricultural activities in Wales.

If Lloyd George had responsibility today, he "would not dare" to oppose the Government's armament programme, Mr. Chamberlain said.

JERSEY EVENTS ARE REVIEWED

Saanich Club Meets and Makes Arrangements for Future Activities

The monthly meeting of the Saanich Jersey Cattle Club took place on October 1, at Foul Bay Road, by invitation of J. Braidwood.

When the president, H. E. Burbidge, took the chair, there was the usual good muster of members, and, after a review of the many Jersey events of August and September, consideration was given to the future.

The third annual dance will be held at Saanichton, on October 17, and promises to be even more enjoyable than ever. Tickets are now available at J. Braidwood's office, c/o Love's, Ltd., View Street, or from members of the club.

The 1935 Boy and Girl Calf Club is now being formed and the prospects are for a much larger membership. Those interested in the new club should apply to E. H. Lee, Royal Oak, for details.

The November meeting of the Saanich Club will be held at Hazelmere, Sidney, by invitation of Miss Moses.

The following is a list of cows owned by members, that have made the record of performance test in September (the figures in parentheses show the number of days fresh and the following figures the number of pounds of milk and fat, respectively):

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

Virginia Vane Says:

FATHER MUST BE TAUGHT TO HELP SPOILED CHILDREN

Dear Miss Vane: I am interested in your column and enjoy the daily talks you give. I wonder what you will make of my problem? I certainly need help.

I am in love with a man of forty-five—a widower—who has two children, a boy and girl. He has spoiled them to a point where they simply take advantage of his good nature. The son refuses to take work seriously, and for that reason is out of a job most of the time. The girl is determined to marry a rich man and, until that day, confidently expects her father to give her more luxuries than he can afford. She is extravagant and vain. Her father is so devoted to her that he works himself to death in order to cater to her selfishness. I know that he wants me to marry him—we have often discussed it, but I wonder how I could make a success of such a marriage, feeling the way I do about the children.—UNDECIDED.

You would be wise to postpone making a definite decision about this marriage, until you have discussed the situation thoroughly with the doting father. And don't be afraid to be as frank with him in your analysis of his children, as you have been with me.

It is almost impossible to persuade a devoted father that his offspring are using him selfishlessly and thoughtlessly to further their own ends. No man wants to believe such a thing—least of all the widower, who has for years tried to make up to his boy and girl for the loss of their mother.

Perhaps you can make him understand the folly of his ways if you point out to him just what harm he is working on the two human beings he loves most.

Show him that the boy who depends on dad's good nature and dad's bank account, to get him through life, will never make himself or anyone else happy. A little common-sense treatment might convince sonny boy that it was up to him to stand on his own feet, earn his own living, and so make a place for himself in the world. The longer he is allowed to drift into one job after another, the more hopeless his future is—and his fond parent should be warned of this.

In the same way the spoiled daughter is steering straight for an unhappy marriage. What is she learning about compromising—about sharing—about helping? Even if she marries her rich man, she will be called on to make sacrifices of one sort or another. And if dad has taught her to take everything and give nothing she can be calculated to make any husband unhappy.

Also she is in a fair way to miss love altogether, if her training makes it necessary that she marry for money. She is bound to pass up an opportunity for real romance if it is offered her by a young man who has his way to make in the world. Accustomed to luxuries which the average boy can't afford to give her, she may have to accept a loveless marriage as the only means of perpetuating those luxuries.

Tell the fond father all of this, Undecided. Ask him to give his boy and girl a chance. Keep yourself and your feeling against the children, as much out of the discussion as possible. Your position is difficult inasmuch as your well-meant advice might be misunderstood as a symptom of jealousy.

Above all things, don't attempt to deal with the boy and girl directly. They are bound to mistrust you. With tact and understanding, you may one day be able to win their affection, but at the moment no one but their father can tackle their problem efficiently.

Wait until you see how your widower accepts your suggestions before considering marriage. Tell him that his attitude toward his children must change before you and he can be happy together. And wait for proofs of that change before undertaking matrimony.

BE HONEST WITH GIRL'S PARENTS

R. G.—It seems to me that your sweetheart's mother and father are bound to suspect you of being a slick city fellow, if you employ such elaborate methods of deception to gain an audience with them. Why not be perfectly frank and simple and cut out all the hocus-pocus with which you hope to impress the older people. Mothers and fathers aren't a race apart, you know. They have the ordinary everyday mental processes—much like yours. They can be dealt with. And the more honest you are with them, the better basis you have for a friendship with their daughter.

Suppose at some later date they discovered that you'd won your way into their confidence with a cheap trick. All the good you might have done in building up their faith in you would be destroyed in a second. And, however long you labored to convince them that you were a nice boy with the most honorable intentions toward their precious child, you could never erase their memory of your initial deception.

So discard the parlor tricks and begin your courtship with the nice, simple old-fashioned idea of making real friends with the older generation.
